BONN

Theodore Hertz Bonn, born in Philadelphia PA May 27, 1923, passed away April 11, 2019 in Carlsbad, CA. He was the husband of Edith Sindell Bonn (1924-2007) and son of Norman Eugene Bonn and Matilda (Cohen) Bonn of Philadelphia. Ted had a long and rewarding career as a computer scientist, and lifelong passions for photography, tennis, travel, and chocolate. His family was a great source of pride, love, and inspiration. He was drawn to the sea and enjoyed his later years in Sarasota FL, Carlsbad CA, and Falmouth MA, where he helped to establish the Falmouth Jewish Congregation. He will be missed by his family, Suzanne Wadoski and her husband Ken, Miriam Bonn, Matthew Bonn and his wife Quinn Cramer; grandchildren Andrew Wadoski and his wife Shaila Mehra, Sarah Caruso and her husband Milo, Matthew Bonn, Amanda Bonn and her husband Gautam Sood, Susannah Bonn and her husband Nick Giannecchini, and Lilach Mannheim and her partner Eric Laurio; four great grandchildren, his brother, Leonard and his wife Clare, niece Linda Borenstein, nephew Steve, and many dear friends. Ted graduated from the University of Pennsylvania (B.S. 1943 and M.S. 1947, both in Electrical Engineering). A pioneer in electronic computers, he worked with the ENIAC, the first electronic general-purpose computer as a graduate student. He continued his career at Eckert Mauchley Computer Corporation and participated in the development of UNIVAC 1. He then developed sonar components for the United States Naval Air Development Center, Johnsville, PA; was Chief Engineer, Research and Peripheral Development, UNIVAC, Blue Bell, PA; Director of Applied Research and Standards, Honeywell Information Systems, Waltham, MA; Director, Computer Research Laboratory, Sperry Research Center, Sudbury, MA; and Manager, Command, Control, Communications & Intelligence Systems, Sperry Corporation, Waltham, MA. Ted held more than 45 patents in the areas of computer storage and peripherals. He was a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), serving as Vice Chairman, Computer Society; Vice President, Publications; member of the Board of Directors; and was recognized with the Richard E. Merwin Computer Society Award in 1986. Memorial services will be held at a later date in Falmouth, MA. Contributions may be made in Ted's memory to The 300 Committee Land Trust in Falmouth MA, which acquires and preserves the green spaces he loved to walk and photograph; to Quail Gardens, now San Diego Botanic Garden; or to the Falmouth Jewish Congregation.

DEATH NOTICES

HAFETZ

Irma Sue Hafetz (née Neff), 84, passed away on April 10th, 2019, surrounded by children and grandchildren. She was a lifelong center of gravity for the life of her family and friends. Proud daughter of Camden, NJ, she loved her adopted hometown of Atlantic City, strolling the boardwalk since childhood, co-owning the Walton Hotel on Tennessee Avenue, and as a realtor for Century 21. She met her future husband, Aaron Hafetz, at a wedding in one of the old grand hotels. It was a love affair that lasted until his death in 2016 and beyond. Raising four boisterous sons, she ran a tight ship in the house she designed on Bay Shore Drive, overseeing everything from school wardrobe to elaborate Shabbos dinners. She dedicated herself to her husband and found purpose in making the kosher Jewish home in which they both found great comfort. She showed up for life and tried to make it beautiful. Taking special pleasure in setting a beautiful table and wearing stylish outfits, Irma rarely missed her weekly visits to the beauty parlor. For decades she not only hosted the high holiday observances, she was also the life of the parties. Everyone was welcome to come if not necessarily leave. In fact, she was famous for her long good-byes that could take an hour. No one escaped without a kiss or instructions to dress better, shave a beard, or buy a different brand of coffee. She was the first call for her friends and family when there were troubles to work through, joys to celebrate, and decisions to make. They relied on her for her unflagging optimism, common sense, and the way she always stood up for those in need. Her affection extended to the bigger world. There was never a stranger she didn't enjoy meeting or a conversation she wouldn't start. She was able to experience everything that mattered to her in life—a loving husband, devoted sons, a daughter-in-law who cared for her like a mother, connection in her community, and a wide-spread family that brought her great joy. Her relationships with her grandchildren were special not only to her but to all four of whom she guided and delighted with her humor, her straight talk, and her limitless love. Three generations remember how she would sing to them, "You Are My Sunshine/My Only Sunshine." She was the sunshine that lit everyone's way. Irma's legacy includes son Scott and her daughter-in-law Kathy Hafetz, who she loved as her own daughter, of Linwood; Drew Hafetz of Tampa, FL; Larry Hafetz and son-in-law Eric Gutierrez of Los Angeles, CA; and Glenn Hafetz of Ventnor; as well as grandchildren Jordon, Brianna, Madison, and Brandon, who were her greatest delight in her final years. She also enjoyed a deep bond with her twin sister Jeannie and brother-in-law Burt Bennett of Tampa, FL; as well as with her nieces and nephews; and lifelong friendships with extended family. She is pre-deceased by her sister Bernice "Chickie" Alper Neff. Nothing brought her as much joy as being surrounded by loved ones and that is how she left this world. In lieu of flowers, donations to Congregation Beth Israel of Northfield, are appreciated and will help carry on Irma's commitment to Jewish life and culture. May her memory be a blessing.

KATZ

Judith Barbara Kapustin Katz peacefully passed away at the Quadrangle in Haverford, PA, surrounded by her family, on Thursday, March 28, 2019, after fighting a long battle with Parkinson's disease. Judith was born on April 22, 1939, to Belle and David Kapustin in Philadelphia. After graduating from Girls High, she earned a Bachelor's Degree with Distinction in Psychology, graduating magna cum laude from Temple University. She continued her studies in psychology, obtaining a Master's Degree from the University of Michigan. She later pursued graduate studies at the University of Pennsylvania, where she earned a Doctor of Education degree. In her early career, Judith worked at Haverford College, Swarthmore College, and Philadelphia College of Art (now University of the Arts), organizing counseling and career counseling offices. She later became the Dean of Students at Moore College of Art. Additionally, Judith worked tirelessly in helping women advance in the workplace and teaching them how to represent themselves professionally. She was instrumental in starting and contributing to leadership development programs for women: HERS, ELAM and NELI. For over forty years she worked with hundreds of women on guiding their life and career choices to find meaningful work that matched their strengths and lifestyles. She was passionate about her work and those she guided celebrated how she changed their lives. Judith cared deeply about others, listening attentively as people shared their dreams and desires. She was a great friend and a devoted mother. Judith loved to laugh, cook, and read. She made hand built ceramic pieces with color and texture that filled her home and the homes of her children. Judith is survived by her partner Marilyn Arnott; her two children Rachael and Noah Katz, whom she had with former husband Solomon H. Katz; grandchildren Jacob Max and Nina Rose Zimmerman, and Mira Fei and Asher Lin Katz; and sister Ruth Kapustin Haines. Judith was preceded in death by her sister, Myrna Brind. We will always carry the memory of Judith Kapustin Katz in our hearts. To celebrate her life, donations may be made in her honor to the Parkinson's Foundation www.parkinson.org and the Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research www.michaeljfox.org

DEATH NOTICES

WILDER

William Wilder, of Jamison PA and formerly Elkins Park, PA passed away on April 11, 2019. 98 years old, he lived a wonderful, full life nearly up to the last day. Born in Philadelphia to immigrants Philip and Mary Wilder, Bill attended public schools including Gratz High School, and then Temple University. His education was interrupted when he enlisted in the Army after Pearl Harbor, with whom he saw service in the Quartermaster Corps in Natal, Brazil. World War II After the war Bill received his degree in Temple and began a lifelong career in traffic management, now known as "logistics," employed by Cuneo Press, United News, and in the most fulfilling part of his career, Clark Worldwide Transportation. In that last position, he and his wife of 68 years, Selma (Dubin) Wilder traveled the world experiencing the best it had to offer. Bill's life revolved around Selma—they both cared deeply for one another and are a model for a great marriage. Bill is survived by his wife, Selma, their sons, and their spouses, Jeffrey and DeAnn Wilder and Stuart Wilder and Beth Snyder, and two grandchildren, Jacob and Süki. In his last years, Bill enjoyed nothing so much as dining out—always with cocktails—with friends and family. He had a terrific sense of humor and left friends around the world. Please donate in Bill's name to the JWB Jewish Chaplains Council jccassociation.org/what-we-do/jwb/ and Disabled American Veterans www.dav.org in lieu of flowers or food.
