Eleanor was a life-long resident of the Philadelphia area. She graduated from Germantown High School in 1943. After school, she worked briefly for the Franklin Printing Company; when her first child was born, she shifted her attention to being a homemaker. Eleanor provided a safe and comfortable home for her husband Iverson and their three children. High Holidays meals were always beautifully orchestrated, with delicious foods and the warmest welcome for family and friends. When family and friends were especially in need, she opened her life and home, or visited with heart and home-cooked foods in hand. When asked, Eleanor always provided sage advice. One saying that sticks is: "do unto others as you expect they should do unto you." Eleanor was also Nana to five grandchildren; she was always excited to visit with her grandchildren, and before anyone left her home, they departed with the warmest kisses and hugs. Eleanor was an impressive golfer and mahjong player. She spent many evenings playing and winning at cards. Eleanor enjoyed watching handsome Cary Grant movies, answering Jeopardy questions, and telling cute jokes. Eleanor will always be remembered for her sweetness,

SILVERMAN

Lenore Silverman 74, Mother, Grandmother, and friend to many passed away peacefully in her sleep August 8th, 2016. She was lovingly referred to as “Mine,” by her six adoring grandchildren, Mackenzie, Lindsay, and Jackson Danzik and Max, Danny, and Johnny Clements. These children, along with their parents, Rob and Gretchen Danzik, were the lights of her life. Leni was a long-time resident of 5 Ponds in West Minster, PA where she lost her soul-mate and husband Seymour Silverman in 2012. She then relocated to Pittsburgh, PA to be with her children and grandchildren. Leni lit up every room that she entered and was quite possibly the most generous spirit that this world has known. She enjoyed playing mahjong and lunching with her friends. She was an avid reader and a member of Beth El Synagogue. Leni graduated from Michigan State and had a career as a para-legal in her early life. Passing several grades during her youth, she was one smart cookie! Her continuous wit was the source of laughter for all of those in her life. Her endless encouragement lifted countless people to be better than they were before they knew her. She was rarely at a loss for words or smiles. Her years of great joy were during her marriage to Sy, whom she had missed every day since his passing. Leni was also preceded in death by her parents, Harry and Evelyn Schneider and her infant son Edward Danzik. She is also survived by her son Howie Danzik.
