BRONSTEIN

Bernard "Bernie" Bronstein, DDS, of Cherry Hill, NJ died July 7, 2019 of Alzheimer's Disease. Son of the late Anna and Morris Bronstein he was born in Phila. on May 23, 1934. As a child and throughout his early teen years he found great enjoyment and friendship in his local Boy Scout Troop, earning the rank of Eagle Scout. He loved the two weeks that he spent each summer at Scout Camp. He was a member of the 197 Class of Central High School. He attended Temple University, and upon graduation, served the 1st Marine Division at Camp Pendleton as a Navy Dentist. Upon completion of his military obligation, he returned to the Phila. area and began to practice Family Dentistry in Deptford, NJ in 1960. Bernie loved to talk and his patients were always there to listen, even though they could not answer him, while receiving dental care. Bernie loved his work and gradually retired. Health issues caused him to retire completely in 2012. In retirement he enjoyed bike riding with his friends on the Boardwalk in Atlantic City and playing golf. He is a long time member of Temple Emanuel in Cherry Hill, NJ. He is survived by his wife of 61 years Alice (nee Spector) Bronstein, sons Dr. Michael (Christie) Bronstein and Steven Bronstein and grandchildren Lyla, Luke and Gavin Bronstein. FLEEGLER

Earl Flegler, a retired hand surgeon and resident of Plymouth, MA, died on August 3, 2019 at the age of 79 while surrounded by his family. Earl is survived by his son Eric, daughter-in-law Marisa, brother Harvey, grandchildren Joshua, Naomi and Sonia, and wife Nancy Cetlin. He is predeceased by his first wife Kathy and his son Michael. Earl was born in Philadelphia on October 29, 1939 to Harry and Florence Flegler. He graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1961 with a degree in Biology and then attended medical school at Jefferson Medical College, graduating in 1965. He trained in general surgery at Temple University and then pursued a fellowship in plastic surgery at Allegheny General Hospital and further training in hand surgery in Arizona. He practiced his profession in Cleveland, OH from 1973 to 1995 initially in private practice and then at the Cleveland Clinic, where he was the division chief of hand surgery. In 1995 he and Kathy moved to Ambler, PA where he continued to practice hand surgery in private practice and as a Professor and faculty member of the Department of Surgery at Rutgers University and the Newark VA. He was a world-renowned surgeon with an unparalleled experience in the treatment of hand tumors and complex hand surgery. During his career he edited the definitive book "Tumors of the Hand and Upper Limb" and wrote several journal articles and book chapters on a variety of topics in hand surgery. He was also recognized as a patient teacher of several generations of plastic surgery residents. He retired in 2014. Early was a devoted father, husband and grandfather who enjoyed his life-long passion of fly fishing – one sparked by a course given to him by Kathy. He spent a lifetime designing and tying his own flies, building bamboo fly rods, traveling around the country and the world on fishing expeditions, painting his catches in vibrant watercolors, and writing articles about the subject for fishing magazines. He was a naturalist who loved spending time outdoors. He was an observant Jew who delighted in learning about Jewish history and the Kabbalah. In his retirement, Earl greatly enjoyed spending time with his three beloved grandchildren. He will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all who knew him. Donations and condolences may be made in Earl's memory to either the Catskill Flyfishing Center & Museum or Project Healing Waters FlyFishing.

DEATH NOTICES

GOLDSTEIN

Irene Matson Goldstein was born September 28, 1920, in Claghorn, PA, the daughter of John and Mathilda Mattson and the sister of Ben and Signey. During her childhood, the family moved to West Virginia where John worked as a coal miner. She later moved to New York during the Great Depression to work as a maid. One day, while shopping for the family that she worked for, she met a young man working in the grocery store named Hyman Goldstein. The two married in June 1941, and moved in with his parents. They had two children, Bob (who passed away in 2018) and Sheila. They moved to Chester, PA, and with Hy's brothers opened L&H Sporting Goods (named for Lou and Hy). After raising their children in Chester, they moved to Broomall. Following retirement, they moved to Delaware, and in 2003, her daughter Sheila moved up from Virginia to be with them in Wilmington. Hy passed away in 2004, just shy of his 91st birthday. Since then, Irene and Sheila have lived together in Wilmington. Overall, Irene enjoyed a full and wonderful life. Her loves included gardening, animals, and family. As a gardener, she would drive her tractor around the property in Broomall and cut down trees with her chainsaw. In Wilmington, she managed a large flower garden, continued to wield her chainsaw to trim trees, composted, and raised beautiful flowers. She also loved animals. Over her life she has raised numerous cats and dogs, and at the time of her passing leaves behind two wonderful cats and three dogs. She lived independently with her daughter, and gardened until the end. She was looking forward to her 100th birthday, scheduled in 2020. She is survived by her daughter Sheila, and has left a large and loving family including children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. These include: Josh and Erica Goldstein and their daughters Alexa and Lindsey; Mark and Summer Goldstein; Josh and Mark's mother Sandy; Julie and Steve Lifton, their daughter Alexandra, their son Jason, his wife Jenna and their daughter Nell; Debby Kauffman; Julie and Debby's mother Bunnie and her husband Arnie; Stephanie Blumstein, her daughters Chloe and Ellie, Abby Blank, and Stephanie and Abby's mother Barbara; Vicki Fariss; and Marlene and Joelle Underwood. INGERMAN

Ira M. Ingerman, age 81, of Boca Raton, FL and Philadelphia, passed away peacefully at his home in Philadelphia on August 4th, 2019, after a battle with cancer of the pancreas and lung. A native of Philadelphia, Ira grew up in Wynnefield and attended Overbrook High School. He graduated from Temple University in 1959 with a degree in accounting and went on to practice as a CPA with Bernstein & Salkind until he formed a business partnership with Stanley Ginsburg in 1969. Through this relationship, Ira served as President of Arrow Display Company and Sparks as well as Magic Marker Corporation. Later in his career, he was involved in real estate development and management through their company, Equivest Development Inc. Although quite successful professionally, Ira's greatest accomplishment was as a husband, father and grandfather to his large and very close-knit family. Known to his 14 grandchildren as Poppo, he traveled between Boston, New York and Philadelphia frequently and hosted many gatherings so he could spend time with the people that meant the most to him. Ira was a longtime supporter of Ben Gurion University of the Negev and served on the Board as Treasurer for the American Associates of Ben Gurion University and was a member of the Board of Governors of the university. He and his wife Eileen were benefactors of the Ginsburg-Ingerman Overseas Student Program (OSP) for the last 40 years with his partner Stanley Ginsburg and his wife. This immersive study abroad program brought students to Ben Gurion University of the Negev to deepen their knowledge and exposure to Israel and its people while studying a variety of challenging academic subjects. He also established a separate endowment for scholarships for Israeli students. Ira was also a major contributor to a number of other Jewish charities, namely Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia as well as a longtime supporter of other educational and health care related causes. His desire to give back will continue through the programs he has so generously established. Ira is survived by his wife of 42 years, Eileen Ingerman (nee Gross), his children Randi Ingerman (husband Richard Cleveland), Cindy Ingerman Balick, Elliott Ingerman (wife Linda Ingerman), Gregory Stein (wife Brooke Stein) and Amy Wood (husband Travis Wood); his 14 grandchildren, Michelle Cleveland, Matthew Balick (Nicole Goroshovsky), Bryan Cleveland, Jack Balick, Chase Balick, Max Ingerman, Jesse Ingerman, Jonah Stein, Remi Ingerman, Dylan Stein, Charlie Stein, Zachary Wood and Zoe Wood. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be directed to: AABGU, P.O. Box 1128, Jenkintown, PA 19046. Checks should be payable to AABGU and Ginsburg-Ingerman Overseas Student Program should be noted in the memo section. Alternatively, donations can be called in to 215-884-4510.

He also founded American Interactive, a company specializing in hospital laboratory data processing systems. He has been a member of the board of governing trustees of The Jackson Laboratory. Peter was Entrepreneur-in-Residence at Muhlenberg College, teaching courses in venture capital and entrepreneurship on campus. In 2013 he was named to the newly created post of Entrepreneur-in-Residence within the office of the Vice President for Research at Penn State which was part of an ongoing effort to invigorate entrepreneurship and technology transfer at the University. Most recently, he served as Chairman of the Board for the Penn State Research Foundation, a nonprofit organization comprised of University faculty, alumni, trustees and industry representatives which purpose is to promote patenting and commercial applications for Penn State's scientific and technical research. As an avid boater for 45 years, Peter loved spending his summers on the family boat "Main Course" in Surry, Maine where he was very active at KYC yacht club (Blue Hill, ME), spending more than a decade as the club treasurer. Peter was an enthusiastic Penn State football fan. He loved to travel the world, had a passion for genealogy, was always a student of history and loved gospel music. Above all he loved time spent with his family. PODEL

Jack Podel, 92, passed away July 9th in Glendale Az. Born July 25, 1926 in Philadelphia, he was the second son of Levi (Louis) and Mirke (Mary) Podel. In 1942, at the age of 16, Jack joined the Civil Air Patrol, hoping to become a pilot. His vision was too poor for him to follow that dream, but not for the infantry. In 1944, Jack was drafted into the Army and soon found himself on the other side of the world. On May 12, 1945 he was wounded in the Philippines. Before his release from the hospital in July, the day before his 19th birthday, he was awarded the Purple Heart. Returning to Philadelphia, Jack went to work at the Philadelphia Navy Ship Yard and later in Trenton, NJ as a civilian for the Navy and the Defense Industrial Supply Center (DISC) as a mechanic on experimental jet engines. As his father had been an immigrant from Russia, Jack was considered a security risk and was not allowed to work on classified projects. That didn't stop the engineers from calling on him when they needed his expertise. On March 24, 1951 Jack married the love of his life, Miriam Ellis. By the end of that year, they had started their family with the birth of their son, Robert. In the years that followed, they welcomed another son, Terry, and a daughter, Roslyn. In 1978, Jack, Miriam, and Terry relocated to Phoenix, where Jack worked at Garrett/AIResearch as a government QA inspector for military projects. After his retirement, Jack enjoyed playing tennis, visiting Sedona, and for many years was a volunteer in the Glendale Elementary School District. Jack is survived by sons Bob (Karen), Terry, daughter Lynn (Bill) Gangloff, and four grandchildren all of Phoenix. He was preceded in death by his wife Miriam and his brother Nathan z"l. Arrangements by Sinai Mortuary. Rabbi Martin Scharf officiated. Interment at National Memorial Cemetery, Phoenix, Az. Donations requested to the Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center.

WABER

June Waber (nee Langley), of Center City Philadelphia. Beloved wife of 53 years to the late Alfred Waber. June grew up in Manchester, England, and with her sister and mother lived through the bombings of World War II. She and her late mother and sister emigrated to the United States in the 1950s where she came to meet and love her late husband Alfred and came to love her adopted home Philadelphia. The love of June's life was her family. In particular, June and Alfred loved and adored their daughter Elizabeth Raynes, son-in-law Stephen Raynes, and their two beloved granddaughters, Lily Ann Raynes and Katie Raynes. She was a woman of immense grace, humor, and kindness to those whom she knew and to strangers on the street. With her sweet English accent and kind touch, she lit up many a room. She enjoyed her extended family, dear friends, bridge, and an Appletini. Her passing was sudden and comes one day before the anniversary of her late beloved husband Alfred's passing. In addition to her daughter, son-in-law, and two granddaughters, she is survived by one niece and four nephews. WOHL

Sylvia Wohl, 103, formerly of Elkins Park, PA, died peacefully on July 4 after a brief illness. She had been a resident of Balfour Senior Living, Louisville, CO, for the past five years. Prior to moving to Colorado, she had spent nearly her entire life in the Philadelphia area. She was born in Philadelphia, the daughter of Hannah and Hyman Blasband. She graduated from William Penn High School followed by secretarial school and office employment. In 1941, she married Bernard Wohl with whom she lived until his death in 1984. She lived in and near Philadelphia until ill health necessitated her move to Colorado where her daughter and son-in-law reside. She was a homemaker who was completely devoted to her two children, was active in the Jewish and wider communities, and also worked for many years as a stenographer. She and her husband were among the founders of Temple Judea in Doylestown, PA, and she was active in Hadassah and Na'amat. Until limited by illness at age 98, she cherished her independence, traveling to Colorado and Massachusetts to spend time with her children and grandchildren and maintaining close connections with extended family and friends. Sylvia was predeceased by her parents, husband, and two brothers. She is survived by her children, Stephanie (Alan) in Colorado and Charles (Alba) in Massachusetts; grandchildren Benjamin, Hannah (Jesse), and Sara (Ezra), and niece Marsha; a grandniece, grandnephews, great-grandnieces and nephew, and great-great grandnieces and nephews. A graveside funeral took place shortly after her passing. Donations may be made to a charity of the donor's choice in Sylvia's memory.

ZAVIDOWSKY

Roslyn Zavidowsky, of Ventnor, passed away on August 10th. Her heart was so big that it encompassed everyone that needed her, loved her, and wanted to be her friend. Roz never complained and had the most beautiful smile to greet anyone that came to see her. She was a beautiful mother who gave every advantage of art, music, and joy to her children. Roz was a teacher for eight years in Philadelphia going into the children's homes to assist them and was a great inspiration to her younger sister who became a teacher too. She had so many friends and they always spoke the same way; how wonderful she was! Roz was predeceased by the love of her life, her husband of 56 years, Bernard. She is survived by her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and her loving sister, Joyce. The family asks that contributions in her memory may be made to charity of the donor's choice as all causes were important to Roz.
