DEATH NOTICES

TELLER

Irene Braun Teller, Feb. 20, 1919-Dec. 12, 2016 was the ultimate survivor, who felt deep pride and joy in her family. She was a talented seamstress and cook, even as her eyesight declined later in life. She laughed with her whole body, and had a song in her heart, despite her hardships and losses. She was feisty throughout each day of her life, even in the final days, and fought hard to have the long life she felt she deserved. Born in Tisa Shalom in Hungary, as the youngest of six children, she was the only member of her family to survive the Holocaust in Europe. She married Zoltan Teller in 1946. They fled from Hungary to a Displaced Persons Camp in Germany, where their daughter Judy was born in 1947, before immigrating to New York in 1949. In New York, Irene and Zoltan built their American Dream. Their son Lenny was born in 1952. They opened a dry cleaning store followed by a men's clothing store. They worked hand-in-hand throughout their lives, enduring many hard years, before joyfully retiring to Florida. She is survived by her children Judy Rohbart and Lenny Teller, their spouses Meyer Rohbart and Leah Teller, and was the beloved Bubby to seven grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. Donations in Irene Teller's name can be made to HIAS www.hias.org or the Anti-Defamation League www.adl.org.

WEISS

Harold Weiss, age 92, passed away peacefully on Friday, December 2, at his Margate residence. He was born in Philadelphia on February 23, 1924, the son of Mendel and Sylvia (Chirlin) Weiss. After graduating South Philadelphia High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Army Corps, the predecessor to the Air Force. He was very proud of his service in World War II, where he was trained as an airplane mechanic and served on a Navy ship in the Pacific Ocean when the atomic bombs were dropped on Japan. Harold graduated from Temple University and became a CPA. He soon left the accounting profession, investing in several businesses and eventually developing a local shopping center. Outside of his family, who he was extremely devoted to, Harold's lifelong passion was flying. He was an instrument rated airplane pilot, and his greatest thrills were flying his single engine plane over the Rocky Mountains and island hopping in the Caribbean. He was the author of a biography of the immigrant experience (And The Streets Were Paved With Gold), a proud Mensa member and painter. He is survived by two sons, Richard (Portia) of Newport Beach, and Michael of Linwood, and his sister Elaine Sokoloff of Elkins Park. Also surviving are his grandchildren: Sean, Sarah (Maor), Remington and Madison; two great-grandchildren: Mia and Joshua; and many loving nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his sister Shirley Coff, brother Alvin (Buddy) Weiss, and grandson Joshua Weiss. He was deeply loved and will be sorely missed. Contributions in Harold's memory may be made to the One World Sight Project, Inc. www.enblindness.org

ARLENE TREEGOOB

MAY 1, 1936 - DECEMBER 10, 2008

PROVERBS 3:15

She is more precious than rubies and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand;

In her left hand are riches and honor.

Her ways of pleasantness

and all her path are peace.

She is a tree of life

to them that lay hold upon her.

And happy is everyone that holdeth her fast.

How profoundly we miss you

Dear ARLENE

never to forget you.

Your loving cousins
