DEATH NOTICES

BROWN

Mother, Grammy, and loving friend Marcia ---Sheila Brown passed away peacefully on December 9, 2019 at the age of 86. She was born on July 6, 1933 in Louisville, Kentucky to the late Etta and Louis Segal. Marcia's greatest joys came from the deep relationships she built with others. Her warmth defined her connections, and made her a fast friend to all. She nurtured many childhood friendships for over 70 years, while always finding room for new people she could take under her wing. Everyone Marcia met was touched by her deep and genuine love for others. Above all, Marcia's love for her family was the centerpiece of her life. A dedicated wife to Alvin Brown for over 65 years, devoted mother to sons Dean and Jeffrey and daughters-in-law Katie and Susan, and adoring grandmother to Rachel, Michelle, Alison, Zachary, and Jordan, Marcia showered her family in abundant, pure love and loyalty. Whether a situation called for a pointed Yiddish saying or piece of sage advice, no one was better at caring for their family than Marcia. Marcia will be deeply missed by her family and friends. A private family memorial will be held at King David Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial gifts may be made to the American Cancer Society.

SHAFRITZ

Hadassah (Das) Shafiritz (nee Weitzel), 89, formerly of Merion, on November 23rd. Das co-founded and taught music and Yiddish at Suburban Jewish school in the 1960s. She was a Pioneer Women council president and active in other Jewish agencies. She also co-founded and organized the highly-regarded Bala-Cynwyd library "Sundays at 3" music series and participated in library reading programs, various PTAs and the Lower Merion school board. Das thrived on everything creative. She sculpted, painted, crafted and repaired her home. If music was playing, she'd be dancing, humming, whistling, or singing along. If nothing was playing, she'd make her own music. She was always the best dancer on the floor, a professional singer in Yiddish, Hebrew, and English, and an actor. Das loved everything purple, chocolate and bargains, but most of all she loved her family. A wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, cousin, and overall person. She is already much missed by Arnold, her beloved husband of 70 years, family/relatives and friends. She will remain near most of her family in Simi Valley, CA.

SPIEGEL

Bernard Spiegel, age 88, of Elkins Park PA and Aventura FL, passed away Monday, December 2, 2019 in Las Vegas. He was born on March 17, 1931 in Nelipeno, Czechoslovakia to the late Abraham and the late Faige Spiegel. At 13, he and all of the Jews in Nelipeno were forced to move and work as slave labor at the Munschau Ghetto in Lodz, Poland. After 2 months, he was taken to Auschwitz where his beloved mother and father were murdered, and then to Mauthausen-Gusen, when he was liberated on May 5, 1945. After reconnecting with his sister and brother, he traveled to Europe and received some rehabilitation prior to coming to the US on December 19, 1951, with pennies in his pocket. In 1952, he joined the army and proudly served in the Korean Conflict as a sergeant. Bernard eventually became an entrepreneur in the hospitality business. Through hard work and determination, as a non-English speaker, with only a 4th grade education, he became a Sergeant in the U.S. Army Infantry, lived the American Dream as a self-made business man, who at one point in his career owned 13 establishments. He left a legacy of love and loyalty to his family and friends. Bernard is survived by his children Gwen Toyzer (Rob Perri) of Havertown PA, Annette Aerenson (Jeffrey Metz) of Las Vegas; grandchildren Michael Spiegel (Stephanie), Bob Spiegel, Jenn Toyzer (Alex Rothberg), Melanie Toyzer (Nathan Black), Whitney Aerenson (Patrick Pembroke), Jackie Aerenson; great grandchildren Zachary Spiegel, Jacob Spiegel; and longtime partner Eva Mason. He was predeceased by his wife of 47 years, Marilyn Spiegel, and son Ken Spiegel. A funeral will be held at 11:00 AM on Sunday, December 8, 2019 at Goldsteins' Rosenberg's-Raphael Sack's, 6410 N Broad Street, Philadelphia PA, followed by burial at Montefiore Cemetery in Jenkintown. Contributions in Bernard's memory may be made to a charity of the donor's choice. Arrangements were entrusted to Kraft-Sussman Funeral & Cremation Services.

TREEGOOB

ARLENE TREEGOOB

MAY 1, 1936 - DECEMBER 10, 2008
PROVERBS 3:15

She is more precious than rubies and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. Length of days is in her right hand; In her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways of pleasantness and all her path are peace. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her. And happy is everyone that holdeth her fast. How profoundly we miss you.

Dear ARLENE
never to forget you.
