BIENSTOCK

Estelle Bienstock was born in 1929 in West Philadelphia and died peacefully at her home in Margate, NJ on February 3, 2020. She was the daughter of William and Sarah Greenwald and the younger sister of Morton Greenwald, MD, of blessed memory. After graduating from University of Pennsylvania on a full academic scholarship, she met the love of her life, Joseph Bienstock, in Atlantic City and they wed in 1962. Estelle and Joe were teachers at Atlantic City High School. They enjoyed a few years of retirement together until Joe's death in 1997. Though they never had children of their own, they were beloved mentors to their nieces and nephews: Sarah (Greenwald) Brennan, Lisa (Agre) Brown, David and Miriam Greenwald, Shelly and Steven Klinger, Irene (Greenwald) Plotzker and Rachel (Agre) Rohrer, who survive her; and to her students. Estelle could not enter any business or office in the area without being greeted by former ACHS students who regaled her with stories and memories. Estelle was able to spend her final years in her home because of the dedication of Terri Costello, her caretaker who became family. Estelle was a devoted member of Shirat Hayam and The Avoda Club. The family asks that contributions in her memory may be made to the Avoda Club, P.O. Box 3120, Margate, NJ, 08402 to fund college awards for local scholars.

GEISENBERGER

Rosalind Prantz Geisenberger, a 62-year resident of Lancaster County and much-loved Mom, Mema, and Grandma passed away on Friday, February 7, 2020 after a short illness. She was born in Philadelphia in 1934 to the late Eleanor Meyers Printz and Jerome Nathan Printz. Ros married Jacques H. Geisenberger, Jr. in 1956. She is survived by four children -- Steven (Christine Sable), Robert (Karen Kosterlitz), Lynn Barbell (Alan), Richard (Marci Muskin) and eight grandchildren -- Wesley, Nicole, Justin, Eli, Robyn, Elliot, Harry and Dana. She is also survived by her brother Bill Printz (Bernice) and sister-in-law Libby (wife of her late brother Jerry Printz), as well as several cousins, nieces, and nephews. She grew up in the Oak Lane section of Philadelphia, was confirmed at Congregation Keneseth Israel and graduated from Olney High. She nurtured lifelong friendships with schoolmates, camp friends, co-workers and neighbors throughout her 85 years -- often travelling to Philadelphia for long luncheons and chats. Ros earned two Associates Degrees -- one in Business from Temple University and another in Accounting from Franklin & Marshall College. Her first job was in Philadelphia at the Fleer Corporation with the best job ever -- taste testing Dubble Bubble gum. Ros applied her accounting skills in numerous jobs and volunteer activities. She worked for the Manheim Auto Auction, KD Tools, Permutit/Zurn Industries, and Hamilton (Swatch) Watch over a 25-year career. She was an active member of Congregation Shaarai Shomayim where she served as its longtime Treasurer, as a President of Sisterhood, and was twice named the Congregation's "Woman of the Year". In retirement, she graduated from Leadership Lancaster's Senior Leadership Program and volunteered for many years at Lancaster General Hospital's business office. She enjoyed the many friends she made through Silver-Sneakers at the Universal Athletic Club. Nothing meant more to Ros than family and she took great pride in the accomplishments of her children and grandchildren. She looked forward to regular visits, holidays and special events and no gathering was complete without a great meal. Ros prepared an outstanding brisket and prime rib with roasted potatoes. Many a relative looked forward to a tray of a lebkuchen each December and the best creamed chipped beef on rye imaginable. Memorial contributions may be made to Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, 75 East James St., Lancaster, Pa. 17602 or a charity of your choice. DEATH NOTICES

GERBER

On Saturday, January 18, 2020, Alan (Al) Paul Gerber passed away unexpectedly at the age of 67. Al was the devoted husband of Elizabeth Rose Gerber (nee Feldherr) and the loving father of Michelle Gerber Hendler and Rachel Gerber Kule as well as caring father-in-law to David Hendler and Matthew Kule. Al had many roles in the family, including but not limited to, being the son of Beatrice (Finkle) Strome, Sidney Strome and Samuel Gerber, the grandfather of Charlotte Hendler, brother of Marsha Gerber, Diane Slater, Stephen Strome, Sandra Spaneas and the late Scott Strome, brother-in-law to Louise Frebowitz, Kenny Frebowitz and Paul Slater, Uncle to Matthew Slater, Elyssa Levy, Alex Frebowitz, David Frebowitz, and Stuart Strome. His family relied on him for optimism, laughter, advice on every single aspect of life, fun times and even political banter. Al was a man of action, integrity, self-respect, humility and appreciation for others. He had a larger than life personality and his love of people, learning and life in general was inspiring. Everyone who knew Al would describe him as kind, humble, optimistic, determined, hilarious, and selfless, among many other positive attributes. In his free time, Al focused on spending time with his family and friends by sharing stories, attending and/or watching Red Sox and Patriots games, playing a friendly round of golf, watching movies, consuming the news, taking a walk, relaxing on the beach, or going to breakfast or lunch. Al was born in Lynn, Massachusetts and raised in Marblehead and Swampscott. He graduated Swampscott High, class of 1969, and then went on to earn his Bachelor in Science in Business Administration from Northeastern University and Masters of Business Administration from Suffolk University. In 1988, he got a promotion at CIT Group and moved his family to Fort Washington, PA, where they have lived since then. With decades of experience in the commercial lending market, Al spent 35 years as a sales executive at CIT Group, where he earned numerous awards. Most recently, Al served as VP, National Sales at Vision Financial Group where he informally served as the team's mentor. For the past three years, he also proudly served as the Chief Financial Officer and strategic advisor of PURSUIT PR, his daughter Rachel's company, and they both cherished the precious opportunity to work together. Al had a real zest for life. He felt that "life is good", "meant to be enjoyed" and that it was critical to "turn lemons into lemonade" and "stay positive". His family is doing their best to live their fullest lives in his honor and to continue his meaningful legacy. Al is already missed so much by everyone who loves him. He was a true mensch, mentor, leader, friend and the epitome of a family man. The funeral took place on Thursday, January 23rd at 1 p.m. ET at Goldstein's Rosenberg's Raphael Sacks Suburban North in Southampton, PA. Contributions in his memory may be made to Alzheimer's Association, www.alz.org/delval, or a charity of the donor's choice.

DEATH NOTICES

SPIELMAN

Our beloved father, Wayne R. Spielman, passed on January 28, 2020. He was nearly 90. Until then, he shared a 67 year long love affair with his wife and our mother, Meta, that began on their first date. Theirs was the kind of love and commitment that you read about in the great books and see in the great movies. Our mother survives him, and continues to love him and cherish his memory; she deeply feels his loss. We do too. Dad was a wonderful and truly remarkable man to us, his daughter and son, and to his grandchildren, other family members, friends, acquaintances and business associates. Those of us who survive him remember his goodness. We were very fortunate to have a father who took on the financial and emotional responsibility of raising us. He taught us that our education was very important and made sure we learned the lessons to support our individual life choices. We and our children will get together and share stories. Life will continue, however, today is less joyful for all of us. We miss you Dad and thank you for being you. Love and hugs always... Wayne R. Spielman D.O.B. 3/11/1930. Dad grew up in Philadelphia, PA, and graduated from Penn State University. He then worked in the printing business, first with his father, Jack C. Spielman, then at W.R. Spielman & Associates. He also served in the US Army Reserves. He loved being with our Mother and us, and enjoyed golf, bridge and helping others. Survived by his wife, Meta Coane Spielman D.O.B 2/19/1931. Graduate, University of Pennsylvania. His children and grandchildren: daughter, Ellen Spielman (married to Michael Walton) and their sons, Zachary and Justin Walton, and son, Lee Spielman (married to Sheryl Glassman Spielman) and their daughter, Stephanie Spielman. If you would like to do so, please send donations in his blessed memory to The Harry Chapin Food Bank of Southwest Florida <https://harrychapinfoodbank.org/>

TRACTON

Shirley Brownstein Tracton, age 90, passed away on January 31, 2020, after a brief illness. She was the daughter of Sarah and Nathan Brounstein and the sister of Martin (Sylvia). A life-long Philadelphian, she was a proud 1947 graduate of South Philadelphia High School for Girls where she was editor of the yearbook. During the era when women had few job paths, she followed two in high school: secretarial and academic, then when on to graduate from Temple University. There, she met her husband of 70 years, Stanley Tracton, a science teacher for 35 years at Leeds Middle School. Shirley and Stanley had 4 children: Paula (Richard Mandel), Wayne (Jane Willen), Gregg (Catherine "Kate" Bannister) and Keith (Debra Perez). She adored her grandchildren Michael Mandel (Joanne Devaney), Lauren Mandel (Jake Greenberg), Justin (Erin Jarrell) Tracton, Iain Tracton, and Samuel Tracton and her beloved great-grandchildren, Francesca, Raphael and Emma. For 25 years Shirley and her sister-in-law owned and operated Edith Moss Fashions, a ladies clothing store in Northeast Philadelphia where they shopped personally for their long-term customers. Shirley and Stanley spent many years enjoying the shore and making new friendships at the Klein Life Center. All will miss her sharp wit, her intellect, her liberal spirit and her incredible editorial skills. As she told the family: I made horrible chicken soup but gave good advice. Interment was private. Remembrances may be made to Klein Life Center or a charity of your choosing.

ZURITSKY

Renée Marlene Zuritsky, 76, died peacefully at home in Center City, surrounded by her family, on Monday, February 10, 2020. The cause was endometrial cancer. Born Renée Stern, the native Philadelphian spent her childhood in Germantown, the middle of three daughters to Maurice and Goldie Stern, who are deceased. Her sisters, Lydia Rubin of Jenkintown, and Hedy Frisch of Toronto, survive her. Renée graduated from Cheltenham High School ('61), and earned a BA from the University of Pennsylvania ('68). While on a trip to Israel with her father in 1960, she befriended an American couple who would become her in-laws -- Herman and Lee Zuritsky, parents of Joseph Zuritsky. The couple wed in 1963, and had three children: Robert (married to Caroline Zuritsky), Anna (married to Michael Boni) and Elisa (married to Jordan Barowitz). Their 56-year marriage welcomed nine grandchildren: Gabriel, Megan, and Ethan Boni; Haley, Harrison, Emma, and Hannah Zuritsky; and Phoebe and Declan Barowitz. Renée was known for her high cheekbones and understated beauty. She was an avid patron of Philadelphia art and cultural institutions: the Orchestra, the Walnut Street Theater, the Art Museum, the Jewish Film Festival. Whenever possible, she traveled to New York City to take in Broadway shows, art exhibits, and some shopping. She was a lover of good food, particularly fresh fruit and decadent desserts. As a couple, Renée and Joe traveled extensively, and gave generously to countless organizations and philanthropic causes. She kept friends from all chapters of her life, yet never stopped finding new ones to add. She was disarming, sincere, straightforward. Older people were especially appealing to Renee, but it's also true that she attracted younger friends, who looked to her as a mentor. Renée was passionate about justice and equality. Above all else, Renée treasured and nurtured her family. She will be missed immeasurably. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations in her name be made to the Jewish Family and Children's Service, National Museum of American Jewish History, or Mural Arts Philadelphia. Services were held at Har Zion Temple in Penn Valley, PA, Interment at West Laurel Hill Cemetery. Arrangements by West Laurel Hill Funeral Home, Inc.

MATTHEW DAVID ADLER

In Memoriam

Born: 6/15/1970 Philadelphia, PA

Died: 2/18/2011 Seattle, WA

Dear Matt: On this the ninth anniversary of your passing, we still miss you very much and wish you were here with us. We are sorry that you are missing the joy of seeing Jake and Zoe growing up. They are amazing children and you would be proud of them. Jake is now 14 and Zoe is 10. G-d Bless them. Jenn is doing a great job as a single Mom.

Marc and Varusha are raising Olivia, 3 ½ and Alex 1 ½, near us in Havertown. They are sweet kids. G-d Bless them.

All four of our grand-children have met each other and love each other. We feel so blessed.

We still look for you in Rainbows.
