DEATH NOTICES

BUNIN

Ilene Ethel Bunin Age 85, passed away Friday, January 20, 2017. Born August 6, 1931 to Israel and Bessie Handelman (nee Willer), she was the youngest of four children. Ilene graduated from P.S. duPont High School, attended the University of Delaware, and married another Wilmingtonian, David T. Bunin. Before they were married, she worked as a dental assistant in her brother-in-law's dental practice. Ilene and David were married on June 14, 1953 and settled in Baltimore, MD. They were members of Baltimore Hebrew Congregation and she was involved in many activities, including as a Cub Scout Den Mother. The family moved to Wynnwood, PA in 1970 and joined Main Line Reform Temple where Ilene was active in many roles including serving as Sisterhood President, active at the district level, and sold Union Grams. Later in life, Ilene sang with the Temple Choir and joined her husband, who played piano, singing at nursing homes. She shared activities with her life-long friends, including going to the ballet, the theatre, and daily walks. No matter what was going on with her, she was always interested in what was going on in your life. Her greatest pleasure in life, besides being a great cook and host for numerous family and social functions including the Pesach Seder, Crab Feasts, and "Sing Your Supper," was her family: her husband and love of her life, her children and grandchildren, her siblings, cousins, nieces and nephews, and the family dog, Coco. Preceded in death by her two brothers, Howard and Millard; she is survived by her husband of 63 years, David; children, Thomas E. (Diane), Royal A. (Nicole), and Amy M. Sadanaga (Kenneth); grandchildren, Kimi, Austen, and Jonathan Sadanaga, Garrett and Natasha Bunin, Carl Hochreiter, Nicholas and Kenny Ensig; and sister, Bernice Tomases Funeral services were held at 10:00 am, Tuesday, January 24, 2017 at Main Line Reform Temple, 410 Montgomery Avenue, Wynnwood, PA 19096. Judaism isn't just what we believe, or the prayers we recite or the laws we observe. It's also about the way we live. How we interact with others. The values we practice. The customs and traditions we embrace and pass down, from one generation to the next.

CLAIRE COHEN August 7, 1922 - February 9, 1999 On her 17th Yahrzeit Forever Love I hope that we will meet again, out past the great beyond, To reestablish our relationship of which I'm more than fond. I would reconstruct the world that we had to leave behind, And share once more continued love but now of a different kind. There will be distractions such as we never ever knew, But through the storm and chaos I'd stick to you like glue. I'd express my deep emotion planning things to say and do, For my most treasured moments were the days I spent with you.

Judaism isn't just what we believe, or the prayers we recite or the laws we observe. It's also about the way we live. How we interact with others. The values we practice. The customs and traditions we embrace and pass down, from one generation to the next.

MEMORIALS

MARKS

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
MITZI MARKS
ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF HER EIGHTH YAHRZEIT

our lives go on without you
But nothing is the same
We have to hide our heartaches
When someone speaks your name
Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent the tears that fall
Living our lives without you is the hardest part of all
You did so many things for us
Your heart was kind and true
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you
The special times will not return
When we were all together
But with the love within our hearts
You will be with us forever
We love and miss you

Love Always,

Marv, Karen, Rick, Rob, Jodi, Andrea,
Rob, Jenn, Allie, Cory, Jeff, Tyler,
Dani, Jesse, Bea, Bob

SYLVIA RUBIN

December 27, 1917 - March 11, 2016
On her 1st Yahrzeit

Dear Syl: We miss you every day but, you have left us with such wonderful memories! You were our role model--a strong, creative, "Woman of Valor" with a keen intellect and a thirst for learning. We will always remember how you faced adversity with such courage; this will give us strength forever.

Love always, Phyllis, Art, Judith and Peter and family
