LEVITT

Harriette Voice Levitt, a native Philadelphian, died on Saturday, December 17, 2016, in the Dallas suburb of Wylie, Texas, at age 95. Known for her vibrant personality, kindness, generosity, warm smile and sense of humor, Harriette moved from Baltimore, Maryland to Texas in August 2016 to be close to her daughter, Ellen Beth Levitt and son-in-law, Jackson Whitt, who had moved there recently. Harriette grew up in Philadelphia, the daughter of Albert and Elizabeth Voice. In her early 20s, she worked at Philadelphia radio station WIP, and after World War II, she worked at Philadelphia's first TV station. She married Samuel J. Levitt, M.D., in 1948 and was a devoted wife, mother to Ellen Beth, and caregiver to her mother Elizabeth in her later years. The Levitt family belonged to Congregation Rodeph Shalom for many years. Dr. Levitt died in 1972 and Harriette later moved to Baltimore to live closer to her daughter and son-in-law. She volunteered at Maryland Public Television and the Arthritis Foundation. Harriette was a resident of a senior citizen community, Weinberg Village in Owings Mills, Maryland for 11 years. There, she made many friends and participated in several classes and activities. Her favorite was the creative writing class. Inspired by her teacher, Kathryn Pettus, she wrote a collection of poems about growing older, her love of life, and healthy living. She was well-known as "The Old Timer who is a Rhymers." Her poems are a gift that her daughter will treasure forever. In addition to her daughter and son-in-law, she is survived by her brother, Stanley Voice, of Boca Raton, Florida, nieces Bonnie Voice and Kelly Voice; nephews Jeffrey Voice, Allan Goodman, Richard Levitt, Jerry Levitt, and Harvey Levitt; and sister-in-law Nettie Weiss. A memorial gathering will be held on Sunday, January 22, at 1 p.m. at Weinberg Village I, 3420 Associated Way in Owings Mills, Maryland 21117. Donations in honor of Harriette may be made to CHAI-Weinberg Village, to support the enrichment activities for seniors living there. Donations may also be made to the University of Maryland Medical Center in Baltimore.
