ALTMAN

Jeffrey Altman, 66, died on January 13, in Delray Beach, Florida. Jeff was born March 13, 1953 to Lillian Plager and Sigmund Altman. He grew up in Margate, NJ. One could always find him close to a beach; he loved to swim and row, and he was an avid lifeguard for Ventnor City Beach Patrol. As a teenager, Jeff moved with his family to Miami, FL but he returned to the Jersey shore every summer to work as a lifeguard. He attended the University of Miami, Atlantic Community College, and Rutgers University, where he swam and rowed, and later he received his MBA from Drexel University. Following his studies, Jeff worked in the greater Philadelphia region as a CPA and a financial advisor, and he was known as a tenacious, passionate, hard-working businessman, and negotiator. He eventually owned his own consulting business and traveled the world for the rest of his years in pursuit of new business ventures. Throughout his life, Jeff enjoyed classic cars and movies, trains, dogs, and coin and stamp collecting. He was a non-conformist, he played by his own rules, and he was simply larger than life. Jeff was truly a unique individual. Jeff is survived by his three children, Kelly (David) Reiser, Ken (Anne) Altman and Julianna Vollaro; his sister, Robin Iver; his mother, Lillian; and his five grandchildren, Gabrielle, Mason, Livia, Carter, and Chase. Donations in his memory may be sent to the Humane Society of Atlantic County, 1401 Absecon Blvd, Atlantic City, NJ 08401

DEATH NOTICES

BRODECKI

Sonia Piekarska Brodecki died January 16th in Rockville, Maryland. She was 92 and was predeceased by her husband of 74 years, Bolek, who died last July in Rockville. Sonia (also known as Zosia) was born into a loving Jewish family in Sosnowiec, Poland. She grew up singing and dancing and had a happy childhood until the German blitzkrieg smashed into Poland in September 1939, brutally taking her childhood away. Sonia had to endure years of cruelty and inhumanity after the Nazis murdered her family. She was left alone as a child slave prisoner in Nazi concentration camps, forced to live in dangerous conditions and work with toxic chemicals making ammunition for the German war machine. Sonia met and married her beloved husband Bolek in the refugee camp for displaced Jewish Holocaust survivors in Landsberg, Germany. After their son Joseph was born in the refugee camp, Sonia and Bolek immigrated in 1949 to Richmond, Virginia, where their daughters, Maria, Roma and Debbie were born. Sonia loved being a citizen of the United States and rarely a day passed when she didn't talk about her love for this "wonderful country and wonderful American people." In spite of all she went through, Sonia always kept her love of life. Her ability to believe in happy endings, to teach kindness and the importance of tolerance fostered respect and humility in everyone she met. There was never a child or a dog that she didn't kiss or marvel over, a flower that she didn't stop to smell, or music she didn't take note of and stop whatever she was doing to dance. Sonia and Bolek dedicated their lives to Holocaust remembrance, meeting with U.S. presidents, dignitaries and celebrities of all kinds, while educating thousands of students, teachers and anyone who cared to listen and learn about the horrors of the Holocaust. They helped establish the Virginia Holocaust Museum and were active participants with the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC, instilling the importance of Holocaust remembrance to their children and grandchildren who carry on their important work today. In addition to her children, Sonia is survived by her daughter-in-law Shelley, three grandchildren Talia, Ariella and Dylan and two great grandchildren Eliana and Noa. Graveside funeral services were held on Sunday, January 19 at Emek Shalom Holocaust Memorial Cemetery. Contributions can be made to the Virginia Holocaust Museum or the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum.

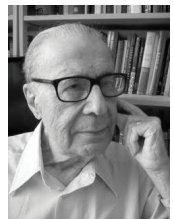

BROOCKER

Doris Broocker (nee Feurer), December 21, 2019; of Audubon, PA; beloved wife of the late Bernhard; loving mother of Warren Broocker (Lois), Geoffrey Broocker (Debbie) and Robin Lynn Citriniti (Lou); also survived by 4 cherished grandchildren and 7 adored great-grandchildren. Relatives and friends are invited to graveside services Friday, 11:00AM, at Haym Salomon Memorial Park, Frazer, PA. Following burial, everyone is invited back to the Providence Room in the Bradford Bldg. at Shannondell. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

FINKELSTEIN

Goldie Finkelstein, a longtime resident of Vineland, NJ, since 1951, and more recently residing at Saltzman House, Springdale Road, in Cherry Hill, NJ, died December 28, 2019, at Vitas Hospice, Jefferson Stratford Hospital, Stratford, NJ. She was 90. Goldie, a Holocaust Survivor, was born Golda Cukier, in Haifa, Israel. The second of four children of Joseph and Miriam (Manya) Cukier, she grew up in Sosnowiec, Poland. She was 10 years old, in fifth grade, when the Nazi's first occupied her hometown. When Goldie was 13, in March 1943, she and her older sister were grabbed off the street by the Nazis to be sent to a forced labor camp. Her father was able to bribe the authorities to release his daughters, but when they got to the gate to be freed, a senior Nazi SS officer said to her father, "Two sisters? Only one may go, you must choose!" With her father unable to choose, Goldie volunteered to stay and for her sister to go home. Goldie was sent alone to a slave labor camp called Graben, where she and other young women were forced to manufacture textiles for the Nazi military. Goldie survived a death march in the winter of 1945 from Graben to the concentration camp Bergen-Belsen, where she was liberated on April 15, 1945. She learned after liberation that her entire family had been deported to Auschwitz in August, 1943, where they were gassed and burned within hours of arrival. Goldie was left alone at 15 years old, the sole survivor of her immediate and extended family. After liberation, she met her future husband Sol, also concentration camp survivor, in a Displaced Persons camp in Stuttgart, Germany. They were married 66 years, until Sol's death in June, 2013. They came to the United States as refugees in 1948, and after a brief time in New York City, moved to Vineland, where they rebuilt their lives as chicken farmers and egg processors. They had three children, and Goldie was totally devoted to rebuilding Jewish life and to her family. Goldie published her memoir, with Sol, entitled I Choose Life, in 2009. Goldie was known for her elegance and beauty, and for her warmth, charm and kindness. Her home was always an open and welcoming place, and she loved to entertain, to cook and to bake. She is survived by children Jack and Gail, Joe and Sara, Eve and Craig (Thomas); grandchildren Adam and Hilary, Julie, Seth and Sarah, Ilana and David, and great granddaughters Mina and Aidan. Funeral services were held on December 31st. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Beth Israel Congregation, Vineland, NJ; or the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C.. ARRANGEMENTS are under the supervision of Rone Funeral Service, 1110 East Chestnut Avenue, Vineland, NJ 08360. To send online condolences please visit our website at www.RONEFUN-EARLSERVICE.com

DEATH NOTICES

PONTZ

Evan Harris Pontz, Esq., 49, of Atlanta, Georgia, died peacefully on December 31, 2019 after bravely battling complications from a double-lung transplant he'd received May 30, 2019. He is survived by his wife Lanie Taylor Pontz, Esq., and twin children, Alyssa Sarah and Fletcher Jonah. He was predeceased by mother Shelly Sorkin Picker. Also surviving are loving parents Curtis Pontz, Esq., (Leslie) and step-father Bennett Picker, Esq., of Philadelphia, and devoted siblings Eden Pontz (Douglas Harsch) of New York, half-brothers Ari (Corey) of Lower Merion, Pennsylvania, Jared (Melanie) of Philadelphia, and Zachary of New York, and step-siblings Deborah Picker Vankin of Los Angeles, and David Picker (Yukiko) of Rye, NY. There are many devoted aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews as well. Evan was born and raised in Philadelphia and its western suburbs. He graduated from Lower Merion H.S. in 1988, Emory University (B.A., 1992), and obtained his Masters in Governmental Affairs at the University of Pennsylvania in 1994. He received his J.D. from the University of North Carolina School of Law (with honors, 1996). Evan lived and worked in Atlanta, Georgia, where he met, fell in love with, and married Lanie. He was a Partner with Troutman Sanders LLP specializing in employment and labor law and a past chair of the Atlanta Pro Bono Committee and served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Atlanta Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section. He was recognized for excellence in The Best Lawyers in America for Employment Law-Management and Labor Law. He was also recognized by Atlanta Magazine, and was selected as a Legal Elite Georgia Top Lawyer by Georgia Trend Magazine. He wrote on legal topics for several respected publications. With respect to charitable causes, Evan believed in the importance of not only providing financial support but his time as well. Evan's civic and community accomplishments were many. He organized and held annual fundraising walks for March of Dimes Georgia. He was involved with the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation, held Board Memberships on the Atlanta Legal Aid Society and The LAM Foundation, and was a former Board Chair of Georgia Lawyers for the Arts and a board member for more than 20 years. He was chosen for Leadership Atlanta, Class of 2017, where he joined a select group in supporting public interest initiatives. He was also recognized as Attorney of the Year by the Pro Bono Partnership of Atlanta. Evan loved his pro bono work because it constantly reminded him how so many in society need help -- and how powerful help from a caring lawyer can be. While living down South, he remained proud of his Philadelphia roots, best reflected in his continued dedication to the city's sports teams. Since boyhood, he was an avid baseball card and sports memorabilia collector. While in the ICU at Johns Hopkins Hospital he found extra strength wearing his Phillies hat and from the inspirational Eagles quote, "We're from Philadelphia and we fight." His most cherished and important accomplishment was his family. A defining trait was his selflessness. He always had a kind and helpful word for others. Even throughout his many health struggles he continued to give support to others. He will be remembered as a loving father, husband, son, and brother. Funeral services were held at Arlington Memorial Park in Sandy Springs, Georgia, Sunday January 5th.

DEATH NOTICES

ROSENFELD

Malcolm H. Rosenfeld (b. 7/19/27 – d.12/26/19) – passed away Thursday evening at Jefferson-Cherry Hill, surrounded by loving family. The second son of the late Anna Ceaser and David Rosenfeld, Malcolm and his beloved older brother Jay (d. 2003) were born and raised in the West Oak Lane neighborhood of Philadelphia. As a child, Malcolm was given the opportunity to attend Blue Mountain Camp in the Poconos; the experience was transformative and he returned for many summers after as a counselor. Malcolm served in the Army Air Corps at the end of WWII, where he earned commendation, although just a teenager, for his skills in building and physical fitness training. He attended Temple University on the GI Bill. He had a lifelong love of boats and, without the resources to buy one as a very young man, he built his first boat in his parents' garage. He was introduced to his future wife, Joan Emanuel, while visiting the Jersey shore with friends. They raised four daughters together, living in Moorestown, NJ, and were involved in many charitable causes. Malcolm built his career in the mortgage industry, first in residential as an executive at South Jersey Mortgage (Camden, NJ) later known as Associated East Mortgage and, for most of his career, as a real estate investor and independent commercial mortgage banker, arranging financing for apartment complexes, business and shopping centers, and hotels. Malcolm had a reputation for integrity and proficiency in all his business dealings. He was a frequent speaker at National Mortgage Bankers Association conferences, and shared advice to homeowners and investors through his column "Malcolm Rosenfeld Says..." which ran in The Philadelphia Bulletin in the 1960s-70s. He was known, also, for his sense of humor, and patiently-orchestrated practical jokes – always unexpected, as he was normally a reserved and businesslike gentleman. Malcolm enjoyed building as a side interest and, with his artist-wife, designed their family's distinctive, mid-century modern home (1958), participating in the initial construction, later expansions, and most of the landscaping and maintenance; he maintained a frequently-used home workshop. In 2006, he suffered his first serious stroke which led him to retire. He became a resident of Miami Beach, FL, shortly after where his two younger daughters and all four of his grandchildren reside. Malcolm is survived by his wife of 64 years, Joan, and their daughters: Andrea Rosenfeld, Lisa (Michael) Rosen, Nanci Rosenfeld, and Susan Johnson; as well as four grandchildren: Max and Adam Frater; Nicole and Evan Johnson. Friends and family will participate in a memorial service at: Rodeph Shalom, 615 N. Broad St., Philadelphia on Monday, December 30 at 11:30 a.m. Shiva will be at the family home in Moorestown for three days following memorial. Contributions in his memory are encouraged to a charity of your choosing. Malcolm enjoyed a long and great life, and has instructed all who loved him, "No Moping!" PLATT MEMORIAL CHAPELS, Inc.

ROSOFF

Maurice (Morrie) Rosoff of Philadelphia died on November 30, 2019, at the age of 87. Morrie is survived by Miriam, the love of his life and wife of 64 years. He is survived by his three adoring daughters and sons-in-laws, Gail (Harry) Kantor, Beryl (Arthur) Rosoff-Verbit and Marla (Eric) Eskin. He will be missed by his many grandchildren, Lauren, Leigh, Ian, Noah, Zoe, Danny, Brett, Avery, Alec, Laura and Mike. He is also survived by his great-granddaughters, Belle and Emma and his treasured sister, Deenah Ersner. He will be remembered as being the most dedicated and adoring husband, father and Zeyde. The family asks that donations be made to Birthright Israel Foundation, PO Box 21615, New York, NY 10087 or Autism Speaks 216 N. Haddon Avenue, Haddon Township, NJ 08108.

SPINDLER

Ruth Spindler (Nee Rosen) of Gwynedd, PA passed away peacefully on December 30, 2019 at the age of 91. Ruth was born May 22, 1928 to parents Florence Marks Rosen and William Rosen in Philadelphia, PA. She is survived by her daughter Lynda Wackenhut Wilkes (Daniel), step daughter Patricia Spindler Henderson, her grandsons Garrett Wilkes (Lauren), Tristan (Fevie) Henderson, Fredrick Wackenhut IV and nieces Carol Regan and Barbara Gummel. Ruth was predeceased by her husband Charles Spindler, her son Fredrick Wackenhut III, and brother Donald Rosen. After graduating from Simon Gratz High School Ruth worked for many years for Equitable Life Insurance Company while attending Temple University. After marrying and raising her children she became passionately involved with Israel Bonds and organized leadership trips to Israel for US support. During many visits to Israel, Ruth supported several underserved orphanages for girls by connecting them with US benefactors. She developed a strong love for the country and considered Israel her second home. During these productive years much of her time was dedicated to charitable fundraising work for Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia and Congregation Beth Shalom in Elkins Park. She enjoyed a wide circle of colleagues and friends in the Sisterhood and Auxiliary who she kept in close touch with whenever possible. Ruth's long life was filled with enthusiasm and purpose. Most of all, she enjoyed sharing good times with friends and her family, especially traveling with her husband Karl. Always concerned with the world around her, she was an avid reader and craft artist. She took great care to add a degree of beauty and elegance wherever she was. Decorating her homes from East to West coasts gave her great pleasure as did the elaborate miniature dollhouse collections she created; recently donated to a museum. Many thanks and much appreciation go to The Abramson Center staff for their incredible care during the past few years. Special thanks to her loving and compassionate companions, Eileen, Ethel, Beata and Jill who helped make her life dignified and manageable. We will be forever grateful for them. Services were private. Memorial contributions can be made to: Abramson Center for Jewish Life, 1425 Horsham Road, North Wales, PA 19454, abramsoncenter.org. DEATH NOTICES

WEINSTEIN

The Honorable Gerald Weinstein, of Margate, New Jersey, surrounded by his beloved family left this life on Monday evening, December 30, 2019, to enter his eternal life. Born in 1930 and raised in Atlantic City on Tennessee Avenue, Judge Weinstein was educated in the public school system, and graduated from Atlantic City High School in 1948. It was earlier, in Massachusetts Avenue Elementary School, that he met his life-long love, then Claire Modiano of Atlantic Avenue (near the corner of Maryland) in Atlantic City, and said often, when he looked at her framed photo from that era, "First time I saw her I knew I would marry her. I said, that one is mine." A declaration that indeed became true. Judge Weinstein and Claire formed a relationship as he went on to receive his Bachelor of Arts from Dickinson College in 1952—the same year the intended couple married on September 7th. That same month, the couple moved to Fort Lee, in Petersburg, Virginia, where Judge Weinstein served in the U.S. Army for two years. Upon his completion of military service, he returned to Dickinson School of Law, and earned his LL.B. in 1956, and his J.D. in 1964. During the law school years at Dickinson, and his early career practicing law, Judge Weinstein and Claire started a family. Their first son Julian was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 1955, and James Modiano Weinstein born in Atlantic City in 1958. Judge Weinstein was formally admitted to the New Jersey Bar Association in March of 1957 while practicing as an active trial lawyer at the firm of Lloyd, Megargee, Steedle, Weinstein and Horn; he became Partner in 1964. In 1968, he was a founding member of the firm Horn and Weinstein, formed with Leonard Horn. From 1969 to 1978, Horn and Weinstein became Horn, Weinstein, Kaplan and Goldberg, the period in which Judge Weinstein's dedication to what would become several decades of service in the interest of civic and community concerns began to flourish. During this time, he served as County Counsel for Atlantic County, Atlantic County Freeholder in 1971, counsel to the Atlantic County Sewage Authority as well as a member of the New Jersey Economic Development Counsel for two terms, as appointed by Governor Richard Hughes. In 1978, Judge Weinstein was appointed to the bench and prior to retirement from the New Jersey Superior Court in 1995 he had served for 17 years as a trial judge, including seven years as Presiding Judge of the Civil Division of the Court for Atlantic and Cape May Counties. He presided over myriad cases, and was named by the New Jersey Law Journal among the top twelve trial judges in the State of New Jersey. A number of his opinions have been officially reported, or the subject of textbook comment. He was elected a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. During his tenure on the Court, he served in every division including Probate and General Equity. From 1992 to 1995, he was the designated Environmental Judge for Atlantic and Cape May Counties. Following retirement in 1995, Judge Weinstein remained involved in the legal profession as an arbitrator and mediator, and in 1997 returned as Special Counsel to the firm he had founded. His time and energy continued to flow to his many civil and philanthropic interests. In 1998, Judge Weinstein received the honor Professional Lawyer of the Year from the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law. He has also served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Stockton College. While his professional and community interests and accomplishments could fill chapters, primary to Judge Weinstein's life has been his love and support of Israel. Perhaps above all, to his family and close friends, Judge Weinstein will be remembered for his spirit of tzedakah—a Hebrew term that literally means "justice," but with a special emphasis on charity, such that the one who gives benefits as much as if not more than the one who receives. Judge Weinstein will be remembered, first and foremost, for embodying tzedakah, as he has made an impact on many lives, locally and in Israel. Judge Weinstein served as a member of the New Jersey-Israel Commission, and as President of the Jewish Federation of Atlantic and Cape May Counties, the Milton and Betty Katz Jewish Community Center (JCC) of Atlantic County and Chairman of both the UJA/Federation annual campaign and the State of Israel Bonds campaign for both Atlantic and Cape May Counties. He was a founding member of the Atlantic County Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, founding member Board of Directors of Shalom House, and founding member of the Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton College of New Jersey, of which he was also Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Council from 1989-1994. He also served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Jewish Agency for Israel and as a member of the Boards of United Israel Appeal and United Jewish Appeal. The list is not complete, as Judge Weinstein and his wife Claire, who survives him, have planted seeds that continue to nourish communities and Jewish organizations, both locally and abroad, they have supported in Israel and locally. In honor of his great contribution to the ongoing support of Ethiopian Jews in Arad, Israel, Judge Weinstein has been awarded Honorary Citizenship by the City of Arad, and loved most his visits to Israel, and the community he supported, which could not be named without bringing tears to Judge Weinstein's eyes. At home, Judge Weinstein was instrumental in founding Shalom House, the idea of which came in 1970 when along with Murray Schneider and Harry Brown, Judge Weinstein wondered what would become of aging Jews who lived in the inlet section of Atlantic City displaced by the casinos. Judge Weinstein was also active in the Milton and Betty Katz Jewish Community Center, and in his role as past President of the JCC referred to the organization as "the center of Jewish life on this island," to which in an Atlantic City Press article, Associate Executive Director Marg Mancuso told the Press, "The JCC is 100 years old, and he's been a member for 75 of them." Judge Weinstein, a member of Shiryay Hayam synagogue of Ventnor, is survived by his wife, Claire, his son Julian and his partner Lauren Gonzalez, and his son James and wife Beverly Weiss. The family asks that donations be made in honor of Judge Gerald Weinstein, to the Sara & Sam Schaffer Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton University, and the Milton and Betty Katz JCC. WEINTRAUB

Ruth Weintraub (nee Rosenzweig) on November 26, 2019. She was 102 years old. Devoted Wife to the late Joseph Weintraub. Devoted Mother to the late Harriet Weintraub and her late mother and father. Cherished sister and aunt to many nieces and nephews. Ruth was very bright and would have succeeded in any profession. An Expert in Antiques and collectables and an invaluable manager, for quite a few years, of her father's Antique store on 10th and Pine Streets in Philadelphia. She devoted 50 years of her life to caring for her daughter who had severe disabilities. Despite those difficult challenges, Ruth never complained or felt sorry for herself. She had an incredible personality, keeping everyone laughing in the assisted living facility she resided at for the last 15 years, even in her last few months of life. Everyone else's well-being was all she cared about. Her life was an incredible example of how to live. She will be deeply and profoundly missed.
