He was co-founder and co-director of Weight Watchers of Philadelphia, Inc. which he founded in 1964 in the Mt. Airy section of Philadelphia with his late wife, Marilyn Price Birnhak, who died in 2018. Birnhak was born in the Bronx section of New York City to parents Samuel and Rae Birnhak and is the brother of Shelley (Robin) Birnhak. He is a graduate of DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx and Brooklyn College in New York City. He received a law degree from New York University where he also received his LLM degree. A World War II veteran, he served in the United States Army Signal Intelligence Corps serving in the Philippines and Australia. Following his service, he returned to New York working first in insurance and then joined the Queens County District Attorney's office as an Assistant District Attorney. Birnhak also served as an Alderman for his Queens district in New York and was president of the Wagner Democratic Club there. He additionally served as a New York State Assemblyman for his Queens district. Prior to founding their own Weight Watchers franchise, he and his wife, Marilyn were introduced to the weight-loss program when they attended founder, Jean Nidetch's meetings in New York. They became business partners and personal friends over the next several decades. Since its founding in 1964, with eight members, Weight Watchers of Philadelphia, now doing business as WW Philadelphia serves up to 20,000 members weekly in 450 Wellness Workshops throughout 11-counties in Southeastern, PA and Southwestern, New Jersey. The Birnhaks had three children, John, Tracey, and Valerie and raised them in their Laverock, PA home in Montgomery County. Tracey and John both worked in the business as vice presidents prior to Tracey's passing after a courageous battle with breast cancer. Valerie works in the arts. John is currently serving as president of the company. Mr. Birnhak sat on numerous Boards and his philanthropic works included the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia, Beth Sholom Congregation, American Friends of Mogen David Adom, American Associates of Ben Gurion University of the Negev, as well as many other charitable organizations. Along with his late wife, Marilyn, Mr. Birnhak was instrumental in opening the 54 bed Birnhak Transitional Care Unit at Abramson Center for Jewish Life and the new 35 bed Abramson Senior Care Birnhak Transitional Care Unit at Lankenau Hospital opening Wednesday, July 17th 2019. He was also a benefactor for the Abramson Cancer Center – Perelman Center as well as many other organizations. He was a member of the Union League of Philadelphia. Mr. Birnhak was a patron of the Arts in Philadelphia. He and Marilyn donated generously to the Philadelphia Theatre Company. He also created the Philadelphia Police and Fire Department Weight Watchers Battle of the Badges Competition. Besides his children, Mr. Birnhak is survived by his brother, Shelley (Robin) brother-in-law Stuart (Estelle), children, Valerie (Chris) and John and five grandchildren Lauren, David, Alex, Rae and Kiki. GOODMAN

Jerome Sydney Goodman, 84, passed away peacefully in Boca Raton, Florida, with his family by his side. He leaves behind his beloved wife of 62 years, Maxine, and his four daughters and sons-in-law: Sheri (Steve) Winokur, Amy (Jeffrey) Harrow, Karen (Scott) Tarte, and Lynn (Jay) Roseman. He was also an adored grandfather of 13 and a great-grandfather of two: Jason (Philip), Samantha (Mike), Dana (Patrick), Ross (Amirah), Jordyn (Jesse), Evan, Grant, Brett, James, Dean, Ryann, Kaity, Jack, Charley Paige, and Holden Rene. He was a cherished brother to his only sister Joan and her husband Gerry Lehrfeld. Jerry was born in Philadelphia, and he spent his entire life in and around the city and its suburbs. He graduated from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Sciences, now called University of the Sciences. Decades later, he received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater. Jerry was trained as a pharmacist but became an accomplished entrepreneur and business leader. He founded SaveWay Pharmacies, a pioneer in the discount pharmacy business which was sold to Rite Aid Corporation. He later served as Chairman, President, and CEO of First People's Bank of New Jersey, one of the state's largest regional banks. Additionally, he founded Cherry Hill Travel, which later became Travel One and was sold to American Express, and he also developed commercial and residential real estate. Jerry served on many boards, including US Healthcare, Aetna, and that of his alma mater, PCP&S. His philanthropic interests included the Abramson Cancer Center at the University of Pennsylvania, where he and his family endowed a faculty chair, as well as Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and PCP&S, where a freshman dorm bears his name. But the pride he took in his substantial business accomplishments paled in comparison to the pride he took in his large family. Jerry, known as Pop to many around him, got his greatest pleasure spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was a constant presence in their lives. His impact on his children, his sons-in-law, his grandchildren, and so many others around him has been immeasurable. He will be greatly missed, but he will never be forgotten.

METH-SINGER

Frances Meth-Singer (nee Rudnick). It is with great sadness that the family announces her death on June 23, 2019, at the age of 94. Her first husband Charles Howard Meth, a loving father and grandfather, and second husband, Albert Singer, predeceased her. Fran will be lovingly remembered by her daughters Harriet Meth and Kay Goodstadt as well as her grandchildren Jared Goodstadt and Monica Hoffman and sister, Norma Wolf. Fran will also be forever remembered by her dear friends at Shannondell and White Manor. Family was everything to Fran -- especially her daughters. Her love was unconditional. She also extended that caring to the close friends she knew in Lake Worth, Florida and here in Pennsylvania. Fran was often seen weekly in the card room at Shannondell where she was known as a very accomplished bridge player who always enjoyed a spirited match. In earlier years, she was a frequent golfer on the greens of White Manor County Club where she could hold her own with the best of players. She won a city-wide regional tournament at White Manor of which she very proud. Fran had a sense of style and sophistication--when she entered a party or gathering, everyone took notice, and her personality could fill up a room! She was a class act. The family is holding a private Funeral Service in memory of Fran. Interment will follow in the family plot at Mount Sharon Cemetery. Those who so desire may make memorial donations in the name of Frances Meth Singer to the American Cancer Society P.O. Box 22478. Oklahoma City, OK 73123. Fran will be greatly missed.

DEATH NOTICES

RICHTER

It is with the saddest of hearts that we share the passing of Joshua Adam Richter on June 23, 2019. Joshua was born on March 1, 1969 to Francine Richter and the late Michael Richter. He was the brother of Rachel (Elliot) Rabinovich and the uncle of Jacob. Josh was born in the Philadelphia area and raised both in Cherry Hill, NJ and Ra'anana, Israel. He graduated from Temple University and was a proud member of AEP. Josh loved all sports but his passion was golf and specifically anything that had to do with Tiger Woods. Josh lived long enough to see Tiger's comeback to win the Masters as well as his beloved Eagles win the Superbowl. Josh's other love was writing. Reading his journal has enabled us to understand Josh's lifelong struggle with depression and anxiety. Donations in memory of Joshua Richter can be made to either two organizations: The First Tee of Phoenix in support of their First Tee DRIVE program, introducing the game of golf scholarships. Gifts can be made by phone 602-305-7655 or thefirstteephoenix.org/donate (please use the notes section to indicate in memory of Josh Richter) or sent via US mail to The First Tee of Phoenix, 3837 E. Wier Ave., Suite 7, Phoenix, AZ 85040. Gifts may also be made to the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Phoenix, 12701 N. Scottsdale Road, Suite 202, Scottsdale, AZ 85254 or online at jcphoenix.org/givenow. After observing shiva in Scottsdale, his mother and sister will travel to their hometown of Cherry Hill, NJ to participate in a memorial with Josh's family and friends on Sunday, July 14th from 7-8:30 p.m.
