A 1949 Laureati Honor Society Member as a West Philadelphia High School graduate; and, a 1953 Dean's List Wharton School , University of Pennsylvania moved to Estero, Florida in 1991. In Florida, Mr. Shelow maintained a most successful tax preparation organization, under the leadership of CEO Edward Wierzbowski since 1978, which enjoyed prestige and the height of accomplishment for nearly forty years. Before relocating in Estero, Florida, Mr. Shelow served as controller for Jade Electronics in Trevose, Pennsylvania from 1975 to 1991 for which he was solely responsible for the phenomenal thriving growth enjoyed by the corporation moving to its present location at 275 Andrews Road. Mr. Shelow was the mentor of many of the Jade employees who turned to him and relied on him for guidance. Mr. Shelow was a jacket all trades and a master of all of them, and it did not take long for the Jade Organization to move from the second floor of 3507 Kensington Avenue to 410B Clearview Avenue and 275 Andrews Road. Howard Shelow will be missed by all the Jade personnel to which he added dimension. Mr. Wierzbowski served as his health surrogate and caregiver and was visited yearly in October by Mr. Shelow's niece, Debbie Leonardo of Egg Harbor Township, NJ to be with and celebrate with her uncles Howard and Ed and nephew Skippy. We enjoyed Debbie's Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday speaker phone calls which included from the serious to the sublime and from meaningful discussion of Grand dogs to the meaningless chatter of how the morning coffee might turn out. The quantity of Mr. Shelow's friends were less than the digits of one hand; but, the quality of Mr. Shelow's friends made up more than sheer numbers could represent. Many tried to emulate what Mr. Shelow and Mr. Wierzbowskia accomplished; but failed because the honesty and integrity of the dual purpose was artificial and served an ulterior motive. During the years, Mr. Shelow failed to realize that many who came across as his friends, were not friends and failed to keep in touch with him after their purpose was accomplished. These people know who they are and have to live with their own conscience until they reach the point were I am today. SILBERMANRenee Silberman (nee Spector), July 18, 2017, of Boynton Beach FL, formerly of Philadelphia PA. Judaism isn't just what we believe, or the prayers we recite or the laws we observe. It's also about the way we live. How we interact with others. The values we practice. The customs and traditions we embrace and pass down, from one generation to the next.

WAGNER
Miriam Wagner (Zeitlin), Born December 17, 1926, Died May 30, 2017 Intelligent, playful, creative and strong, Miriam Wagner embraced life fully. Born Miriam Zeitlin on December 17, 1926, she grew up as one of nine children and was especially close with her brother, Matthew Zeitlin and her adopted sister, Lynn Brooks. She was the first in her family to go to college. She painted and worked on her silversmithing until less than a year before she died. Miriam fell in love on a blind date when she was a vice principal and teacher at the Workman's Circle Arbeitering Folk Shul in Wynnefield. She later taught in a variety of other Jewish institutions in the Philadelphia area. In December 1954, she married the man from her blind date, Max Wagner and together they had two children and started a variety of businesses. Miriam loved her family dearly and stayed up-to-date in the lives of her children: Dianne and Gary Sigman and Jacki and Alan Routhenstein, grandchildren: Joshua and Emily Sigman, Elianna Sigman, Barack and Michelle Routhenstein, Arik Routhenstein, and Esti Routhenstein and great-grandchildren: Noah, Rebekah and Zachary. She remained playful and passionate throughout her life. Her legacies of playfulness, creativity, strength and passion will live on in all who were blessed to know her.
