BERMAN
Howard L. Berman passed away on Tuesday, April 24, 2018 at the age of 88 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Howard was born March 27, 1930 to Joseph and Bella Berman in Brooklyn NY. The family moved to Belmar NJ where the beach and the sea was a stone's throw away. He never could get the sand out of his shoes. Howard leaves behind his loving wife Sandra, his beloved children; Peter, Richard and Dana and wonderful Grandchildren, Barbara, Michael, Danielle, Alex, Jodi and Jordan. Howard was a well known and accomplished Interior Designer based in the Philadelphia Area for over 50 years. His work took him from North to South and East to West all around the country. He was a very active person and an avid tennis player throughout his life. He served in the Military. He was always there for all who needed him. Howard will be on the lookout for his son David (also an avid tennis player) who passed away a little more than two and half years ago. They will be together once again looking for a doubles match in Heaven (angels you better get ready and put on your seatbelts). Howard will be greatly missed by family and friends. Memorials may be made to the www.stjude.org/donate

DEATH NOTICES

SCHOENHOLTZ

Evelyn Shirley Schoenholtz, born on July 21, 1925 in Philadelphia to Mary and Saul Schneyer, passed away on April 28. Well into her 93rd year, Evelyn was an unconditionally loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and aunt to those fortunate enough to share her life. A gentle, kind soul, she possessed an extraordinary equanimity. Evelyn graduated from West Philadelphia High School and completed two years at Westchester State Teacher's College. Duty called, and she served the war effort in the Signal Corps. In 1946, she started dating Harold Schoenholtz months after his sisters (Eve and Stelly) introduced them, kicking off a 70-year match made in heaven. With Harold, she raised three children, Sharon, Andy and Kim, devoting herself to their education and welfare, just as her parents had done for her and her brother. She welcomed her mother Mary into her home during the last decade of Mary's life. Evelyn took great joy in her four grandsons, Ari, David, Noah and Matthew, and in her children's spouses, Larry, Janice and Elvira. Evelyn and Harold possessed a unique love for family, which they passed down to their children and grandchildren. Evelyn played the piano and learned to paint as an adult, pursuing her art with dedication and a quiet passion. She had an artist's eye, appreciating the shape of clouds, the exact color of the sky, and many of nature's wondrous details. She loved the beach and playing gin rummy, Rummikub and Scrabble. She returned to college in mid-life and earned a Bachelor's degree, becoming a social worker and serving as an art and recreational therapy director at a senior home. At the age of 70, cheered on by her family, she became an adult Bat Mitzvah. Her family is profoundly grateful that Evelyn enjoyed such a long and happy life. Evelyn has been a great blessing to her entire family, who deeply mourn her passing but find comfort in knowing that she and Harold are once again side by side. Donations in her memory may be made to the Stein Assisted Living Residence, c/o Anna Simmons, Executive Director, 350 DeMott Lane, Somerset, NJ 08873.

DEATH NOTICES

TANNENBAUM

Bernice Tannenbaum, (Ackerman), age 92, of Boynton Beach, Fl., died May 24, 2018, after a courageous battle with Dementia. Beloved wife of the late Harry Tannenbaum, and the wife of the late Emanuel Stein, Bernice was preceded in life by her parents Hilda and Samuel Ackerman, her brother Alvin Ackerman, her sisters Margaret Schwartz, Sylvia Pitts, Louise Weiss, and her "always with a smile on his face" great grandson, Colin Brett Orodener. Those who remain to cherish "T's" long, well-lived life filled with her goodness and positivity are her children Hedy Stein Orodener and her husband, Jerry, of Yardley, Pa.; her son, Craig Stein and his fiancée Lenai Rocco, of Blue Bell, Pa. and Delray Beach, Fl.; her dear grandchildren Jamie and Ian Kornbluth of Phoenix, Az.; Julie and David Scher of Sands Point, NY, and Liz Stein, of Boulder, Co.; and her treasured great grandchildren, Camryn and Lindsay Kornbluth and Leo and Hudson Scher. Also remembering Bernice by stopping to smell the roses each day and to not copy poor behavior are her many relatives and friends, especially her sister, Harriet Marks, her long time best friend, Bea Perer, and a very special thanks to Adam Blank. Bernice's family would like to thank the caring staff of Allegro Senior Living and the staff of Trustbridge for their love as well and becoming part of our family. Born in McKeesport, PA. on August 16 and then residing in Pittsburgh, Pa. for most of her life, Bernice instilled in her students the appreciation and self esteem and striving for achievement as a Business Education teacher in the Pittsburgh high schools. She graduated from the U of Pittsburgh and later went back to receive her masters degree and became a high school guidance counselor. Upon her retirement, Bernice and Harry "kicked up their heels" and moved to Boca Raton. Beautiful Bernice was a fashionista but, more importantly, her beauty and caring came from within to shine on her family and friends. She wore her high heeled shoes until she was 85. She enjoyed, amongst other activities, always being with family, playing tennis and canasta, entertaining via themed parties, and enjoying Friday night services and Sisterhood functions at Congregation Beth Ami. Memories of adoration of Bernice will be shared by her immediate family at graveside services. Contributions in Bernice's memory would be greatly appreciated to the East Stroudsburg University Foundation, Colin Orodener Endowed Memorial Scholarship Fund, c/o Shelley Speirs, 200 Prospect St., East Stroudsburg, Pa. 18301, or a charity of your choice.
