ABRAMS Jozel Abrams (nee Rentz), on May 6, 2017, of Penn Valley, PA. Beloved wife of Alfred Abrams, loving mother of Ferne Abrams and Eric (Karen) Abrams and devoted grandmother of Scott and Steven. Relatives and friends were invited to Graveside Services on May 10, King David Memorial Park, 3594 Bristol Road, Bensalem, PA. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation or the Female Hebrew Benevolent Society. JOSEPH LEVINE and SONS	BARSKY Harriet M. Barsky (nee Spector), age 80, passed away peacefully on March 21, 2017. Beloved and devoted wife of Robert for nearly fifty years. Devoted and loving mother to her sons, Noah and Joshua, and dedicated daughter of the late Clayre (nee Landsberg) and Samuel K. Spector. Harriet adored her immediate and extended family and cherished her many long friendships. She took particular great pride in sharing love and celebrating holidays, birthdays, and any special occasion. She worked at PSFS bank early in her career and later, for decades, as a widely-respected and well-liked real estate agent and appraiser in Northeast Philadelphia and Bucks County. She was active in the Shaare Shamayim Synagogue Sisterhood and other benevolent causes. Harriet was also a very enthusiastic co-organizer of the Olney High School Class of 1955 Reunions, as she found joy in connecting people to share laughter and happiness. She was always optimistic and encouraged others to be happy and without worry. Simply put, she embraced life in the moment, honored the past, and envisioned the most positive future – all and always with a smile. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, 100 N. 20th Street #405, Philadelphia, PA 19103 or a charity of the donor's choice.	CHAKOV Ruth Chakov (nee Kauffman) on April 21, 2017. GOLDSTEINS' ROSENBERG'S RAPHAEL-SACKS	FRYMAN Sandra Joy (Sandy) Fryman, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, died Thursday, April 27, 2017, at Stony Brook University Hospital in New York, after an extended illness. She was 85 years old. A resident of East Hampton, New York, she was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, to Ben and Pauline Lustig (nee Cohen), on April 6, 1932. She graduated from Myers High School in Wilkes-Barre, and attended Pennsylvania State University, where she met her future husband Norman M. Fryman, whom she married on December 2, 1951, in her home town. To all who knew her, she lived a life of significance and consequence. Blessed with a sharp, self-deprecating sense of humor, an infectious laugh, and an innate compassion and generosity, she influenced everyone she touched. Though her comfort zone was backstage, out of the limelight, her spirit, her curiosity, her meticulous attention to detail, her unerring judgment, and her boundless optimism and hopefulness affected and changed the world around her, a gift and a responsibility she left to her children, her grandchildren, and generations yet to come. She was an avid reader, movie goer, and television watcher, constantly informed, good with number and word games, from cross-words to Scrabble to backgammon, and clever and inspiring in her own writing to family and friends. Her life was courageous and engaged, an inspiration to all who knew her, and a clarion call to keep hope alive. She was dauntless and brave. Through hospitalizations and relentless pain, she never gave up, never gave an inch, and made her family and the community in which she lived the better for it. Sandy is survived by her husband, Norman; her children, Jim Fryman, Shelley Leiweke and her husband Terry, Pamela Grossbard and her husband Alan; and by her grandchildren, Jonathan, Jennifer, Andrew, Grace, Katie, and Megan; by her beloved sister, Sue Goldstone, and her children and grandchildren; and by her brother- and sister-in-law, Louis and Rhoda Fryman, and their children and grandchildren. She would want to convey special thanks to her caregivers, Nichelle Roachford and Sherry Allen, who became a treasured part of her family. "For her sake, and in her name, we start out bravely, live on, and fill each waking hour in useful ways". Sandra Joy Fryman's life was celebrated at services at The Jewish Center of the Hamptons on May 2, 2017, at 11:00 AM, followed by a burial at Shaarey Pardes Accabonac Grove Cemetery in Springs, New York.	GOLDFRAD Lillian Goldfrad (nee Lieberman) on April 22, 2017 at the age of 97. Wife of the late Morris Goldfrad. Mother of the late Bruce Goldfrad (Tamar). Grandmother of Danielle Goldfrad. Also remembered by many loving nieces and nephews. Contributions in her memory may be made to the American Heart Association, PO Box 15120, Chicago IL 60693. GOLDSTEINS' ROSENBERG'S RAPHAEL-SACKS

Relatives and friends were invited to services 11:00AM Thursday May, 4th at Joseph Levine and Sons Memorial Chapel, 4737 Street Road, Trevoze. Interment Roosevelt Memorial Park. Contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Beth Hillel-Beth El. JOSEPH LEVINE and SONS	BERNSTEIN Shirley Edith Bernstein (nee Dounn) May 4, 2017. Mother of Tracey Weiss and the late Scott Bernstein. Mother-in-law of Bill Goldberg. Nana of Aaron Weiss (Nichole), Zachary Goldberg, Julie Bernstein, and Meghan Bernstein. Great-nana of Ever and Simone Weiss. Contributions in her memory may be made to Congregation Rodeph Shalom, 615 N. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19123. GOLDSTEINS' ROSENBERG'S RAPHAEL-SACKS	COHEN Martin Cohen died on May 2, 2017. Beloved husband of the late Annette (nee Kopperman); devoted father of Jeffrey M. Cohen (Cheryl) and Stephen Cohen; loving grandfather of Samantha Lee Kie (John); and great-grandfather of Lily and Evan. Marty was a spirited force of nature with a wicked sense of humor, who filled every room he entered. At the same time, he could be tender and unbelievably generous. He believed in tzedakah, often running charity tennis tournaments, tennis being his love. Driven, he built a prefab home business (Hilco) from scratch and transitioned into a star in insurance sales. He died at the age of 99, too early. GOLDSTEINS' ROSENBERG'S RAPHAEL-SACKS	CRINITI Gloria Criniti (ne Burak) April 28, 2017 at the age of 87. ## DEATH NOTICES

GOOSENBERG

Pearl Goosenberg (nee Goldstein), born April 17, 1932 was taken from us on March 31, 2017 after an absolutely beautiful life. She gave unconditional love to her beloved husband of 64 years, Stanley, to her children Ellen (Donald Kent), and Eric (Robyn Faye), and to her dotting grandchildren, Scott, Hallie and David Goosenberg, and Jake Kent. She was the daughter of David and Jennie Goldstein and the sister of Thelma Paul, all of loving memory. She never failed to brighten up a room when she entered it, sought and loved the opportunity to be with others, and had a marvelous ability to make anyone she engaged (family, friend, stranger, even a few celebrities) feel as if they were the most important person on Earth. She spent most of her working years as a bookkeeper and accessories salesperson in men's clothing – first at Adams Clothes in Cedarbrook, then at Jack Lang in Oxford Valley, then at Fleet's in Northeastern Philadelphia. She later managed an apartment complex for its owner, Arnold Tuzman for many years, after which she sold jewelry in Willow Grove, then finally she worked as a volunteer at Abington Hospital's Warminster branch. A proud graduate of Olney High School, she developed business smarts and emotional intelligence cherished by countless work associates with whom she became lifelong friends. She had an intuitive understanding of human behavior and could always find a way to settle disputes between others that made both sides feel good. She often met clandestinely with her children, their friends (who often consulted her privately) and her grandchildren, and somehow always could give useful advice. She took many secrets with her. Although she never played a musical instrument, she constantly played music in the house, and imbued her family with her love of jazz, Brazilian bossa nova and the greats from Sarah Vaughn to Frank Sinatra. She had an extraordinary command of jazz classics and artists and took us to concerts of all types over the years, always having the time of her life. She loved and had the chance to meet Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett (her favorites) and introduced her son to some of his musical heroes like George Benson and Stan Getz. In later years, she enjoyed hobnobbing with actors James Gandolfini, Joe Mantegna and Edie Falco, and got a kick out of dancing with Tom Hanks at the Emmy Awards with her daughter. She and Stan often traveled with their children and grandchildren and were the most appreciative travel companions imaginable. They visited Israel, Italy and Spain and the Caribbean with us and enjoyed sunbathing, making countless friends by the pool and especially spending time with her beloved family. She had endless love for and pride in her family, and never hesitated to tell us. We all hope that we may be able to pass on even a small part of her joyful positivity, and know that she will be in our hearts forever. Contributions in her memory may be made to Abington Hospital Hospice where Pearl spent many hours as a volunteer bringing some sunshine to those dealing with the final chapter of life. <https://give.abington-health.org/donate-now> (then select "Hospice" or your preference) or by mail to Abington Health Foundation at 1200 Old York Road in Abington, PA 19001.

Earl was an avid reader who appreciated the easy availability of books from public libraries, of which he was a constant user. Memorial donations can be made to the public library of the donor's choice. Many Cheltenham neighbors may remember Earl as a passionate walker who on his daily 6-mile treks might have passed their homes. In lieu of funeral services a private memorial will be held in May.

DEATH NOTICES

SCHOENHOLTZ

Harold Schoenholtz, born on August 6, 1918 in New York, passed away on April 16. Well into his 99th year, Harold was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, brother, and uncle to those fortunate enough to share his life. His love for family was unlimited. Harold graduated from City College of New York in 1938 and earned a master's degree in chemistry from New York University before serving honorably as a staff sergeant in the Army Air Force and surviving as a prisoner of war in Nazi Germany. On his 26th mission in February 1945, after dropping four 500-pound bombs from a B-25 in northern Italy to prevent the Nazis from transporting armaments back into Germany, his crew was shot down and had to crash land in Austria, close to neutral Switzerland. All six crew members survived the crash as well as the war. Harold was proud to have served his country in fighting fascism. Soon after he returned stateside, his sisters (Eve and Stellite) introduced him to Evelyn Schneyer, kicking off a 70-year match made in heaven. With Evelyn, he raised three children, Sharon, Andy and Kim, devoting himself to their education and welfare, just as his parents had done for him and his two sisters. Harold's love for family transferred to his children, and he experienced great joy through his four grandsons, Ari, David, Noah, and Matthew, as well as through his children's spouses, Elvira, Janice and Larry. A loyal Yankee fan, he took his sons to see Mickey Mantle hit three home runs in a 1962 doubleheader. He also enjoyed the back and forth with his grandsons who rooted against the Yankees. His Judaism ran deep—he was a man of faith and a strong believer in the State of Israel. He helped create the Hebrew High School of the Five Towns on Long Island and served as President of its Board of Directors. His family is incredibly grateful that Harold enjoyed such a good and long life. He loved to talk, laugh and sing. He has been a great blessing to his entire family and will be missed. Donations in his honor may be made to the Stein Assisted Living Residence, c/o Anna Simmons, Executive Director, 350 DeMott Lane, Somersset, NJ 08873.
