DAVIDOW

Elaine (Davis) Davidow, of Cherry Hill (originally of Clifton, NJ), passed away on October 30, 2017, after spending a week in hospice care. Elaine was the loving wife of Dennis Davidow and the devoted mother of her daughter, Dr. Toby Davidow. Elaine was preceded in death by her two sisters, including Sylvia (Davis) Goldstein in 2008 and Ray (Davis) Platt who passed away 6 days before Elaine, on October 24. Although Elaine battled Multiple Sclerosis and Dementia for 25 years, Elaine's continuous smile, infectious laugh, and words of wisdom served as an inspiration to many people, most notably her daughter. Often the optimist, one of her favorite sayings was, "Tomorrow is a new day with no mistakes in it." She was a fighter through her entire life, always advocating for her family and herself. Her daughter, Toby, wishes to memorialize Elaine in mid-January 2018. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Kasem Cares in supporting elder abuse awareness and education through this link: www.youcaring.com/elaine-davidowfund-viakasemcares-1007457.

RABIN

Dr. Sidney Charles Rabin of West Chester, PA, died on 11/17/17 after a wonderful 93 years. "Sid", as everyone affectionately knew him, was a much beloved and well-respected Chester County physician, community leader, and amateur entertainer. He was predeceased by his devoted wife of more than 50 years, Dr. Lucy Feiden Rabin, in 2007, and his younger brother Leonard Rabin in 2014. Sid was born on August 29th, 1924 in Philadelphia to Irvin and Ida Rabinovitz. He attended Bartram High school and graduated with honors. After 2.5 years at Temple University, he was drafted into the US army, initially as a 1st gunner and later as a combat medic; serving in Europe with the 86th Infantry Division, he helped to liberate parts of Germany and Austria. Upon his return he was admitted to Temple University Medical school, graduating in 1951. He completed his internship at Lankenau hospital, and he and Lucy later settled in West Chester. He was appointed to the medical staff at Chester County hospital in 1953. After 6 years of General Practice, he returned to complete a specialty residency in OBGYN at Philadelphia General hospital. He and Dr Joseph Abbott started Chester County OBGYN in the late '50's and practiced together for almost 30 years. He served as Chief of Staff at Chester County from 1975-1977, chairman of the Dept of OBGYN from 1978-1982 and served on multiple committees from 1973-1990. After retirement at 72, Dr Rabin became a founding board member of Community Volunteers in Medicine (CVM). Sid was an active member of Keshet Israel synagogue for almost 50 years, and of the Chabad House of Chester County more recently. He served as President at Keshet Israel from 1966-1968. He was blessed with an operatic voice and entertained friends, family and receptive audiences all over the world for 8 decades. He was a loyal Rotary member, avid skier, boating enthusiast who loved fishing for flounder and blues in the Atlantic Ocean, and enthusiastically followed multiple Philadelphia sports teams, especially the Phillies and Eagles. Sid and Lucy were married for 56 years and are survived by four children, Douglas S. Rabin, M.D. (Vivian) of Clifton, N.J., Andrew M. Rabin, M.D. (Liat) of Ganai Tikva, Israel, Valerie Rabin Heald (Garth) of West Chester, and Nancy Rabin Neff (Andrew) of Teaneck, N.J. He was the loving grandfather of 15: Abigail, Esther, BG and Philip Neff; Anna (Alix), Dore and Arielle Heald; Beatrice, Yosef, Yisroel, Zev and Penny Rabin; and Saguy, Eidan and Etai Rabin. He is also survived by 15 great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. Shiva is being observed at his residence in West Chester. Please contact Keshet Israel Congregation for times. ROSENBERG

When Pittsburgh original Ron Rosenberg went anywhere in the city, pictures of his grandchildren were always within reach. The city was filled with proud grandfathers, but you'd be hard pressed to find a more proud "Poppy." A native and lifelong resident of the Steel City, Ronald M. Rosenberg, known as Ronnie to his family and Ron to his friends, passed away peacefully in his sleep on Nov. 17. He was 80 years old. Sadly, he did not have a chance to do his most favorite thing -- call one of his grandchildren on his 18th birthday. Rosenberg had never missed a birthday or life event. Rosenberg, a Taylor Allderdice graduate and a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, spent his professional life in a myriad of roles and positions, including sales, retail and at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh. He was a past member of Temple Sinai and a former president of its Men's Club. His parents, Ed and Irene Rosenberg, were founding members of Temple Sinai. Rosenberg was an active coach in the 14th Ward Little League, a league started by his father. An avid fan of sports, Rosenberg rooted for the Pirates, Steelers and Penguins. He is survived by his two sons, Steven (Lori) Rosenberg of Philadelphia and Evan Rosenberg of Pittsburgh; brother Gary Rosenberg of New York City; grandchildren Jake and Sam Rosenberg and Samantha and Ethan Miller, all of Philadelphia; nephews Erich Bergen of New York City and Jeremy Witt of Pittsburgh; and niece Marcia (Eric) Haberman of Pittsburgh. Rosenberg's wife Marcia passed away in May 1972.

SPINDLER

Charles William Spindler, Jr "Karl," of Lower Gwynedd, PA passed away at the age of 97 on Saturday October 14, 2017 at Abramson Center in North Wales PA. Karl was born on July 29, 1920 in Philadelphia, the son of Charles Sr. and Louisa (nee Warner). He was the loving husband of Ruth Rosen Spindler with whom he shared over 50 years of marriage. He was the father of Patricia L. Henderson, (née Spindler), step father to Fredrick Wackenhut III who pre-deceased him and Lynda Wackenhut Wilkes of Clinton, CT. He leaves three grandsons, Tristan T. Henderson, Garrett S. Wilkes, and Fredrick Wackenhut IV. Karl was a proud WWII veteran having served in the Army Air Corps in England as a Technical Sergeant and communications specialist. After the war, he attended Drexel University where he earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Electrical Engineering. Over many years and well into his 80's, Karl worked for and consulted with a variety of major companies specializing in fluid mechanics and nuclear energy. This took him to many US East and West coast cities and overseas, but he considered himself a Philadelphian throughout his productive life. He was a lover of classical music, opera and historical non-fiction, a dedicated photographer, an active gardener, at home carpenter, and a lifetime British car enthusiast. He will be remembered for his brilliance, cheerful disposition, his cooperative and optimistic spirit and his willingness to accept with dignity whatever adversity he was faced with. He always looked forward to tomorrow and hoped for a more peaceful world for his grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the NHSPCA in Stratham, NH to support his love of animals or a charity of your choice.

TABAS

Evelyn Psaki Tabas, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, died on October 17 2017 at her nursing home in Orlando, FL after a protracted battle with Alzheimers at the age of 89. Born in Philadelphia PA, she was the daughter of Max and Gertrude Psaki and sister to David and Martin Psaki. Evelyn graduated from Overbrook high school and earned her BS in education from Temple University and masters of fine arts from the Tyler school of Art. Her greatest loves in life were her husband, her 3 children, and grandchildren. She was lovingly married to her husband, Allan M Tabas, for 50 years. Her main passion in life was her art- she loved painting and sculpture and continued to work into her 80s. She was a strong-minded woman and a loyal friend with a great sense of humor and a loving heart. She always had a smile and was truly pleased to see friends and family and meet new people. She enjoyed spending time with her friends, including her 7 mile constitutional walks every morning. She was a voracious reader and especially loved murder mysteries, frequently flipping to the end "just to see who dunnit." She loved growing plants and vegetables and had an extraordinarily green thumb. She is survived by her daughter Maxine, her sons Joel and Jeffrey, and her grandchildren Kenzo, Kai, Maya, Zoe, Zachary, Ted, Nat, and Irene. Her legacy will be the memory of her contagious smile and the paintings that she so generously gave to those that she cared about. Donations can be made in her honor to the Jewish National Fund.
