DEATH NOTICES

Aaron Irwin Hafetz, 89, longtime resident of Margate, passed away on October 18, 2016, to the voices of his immediate family sharing memories of bygone Passovers and celebra-tions. His hand was held, and a lifetime of kisses returned with the kind of love only a devoted husband and father can inspire. Aaron lived a life of devotion and service to his family, community and faith. Irma Sue Hafetz (née Neff), his wife of 59 years, was his greatest joy and truest love and in his final days he used what strength remained to share one last kiss. Following service as a Marine MP during WWII and the Korean War, Aaron married Irma and raised four sons. A patriarch in the most profound sense, Aaron's family relied on his moral wisdom, unquestioning love and unfailing support. He instilled in his family a strong sense of Jewish identity and commitment to religious and cultural participation. In addition to beloved family man, Aaron was known as an inspiring teacher who influenced generations as teacher and ultimately head of the math department for 35 years at Atlantic City High School, and as Hebrew School teacher at Beth Judah. In the years since retiring in 1989, he continued to receive tributes from former students whose lives he touched. For many years he co-owned a hotel in Atlantic City and continued as a small business owner until his passing. He remained a respec-ted and steadfast leader in his community until his final months and his generosity as a philanthropist benefited numerous causes and Jewish organizations. In addition to his wife, Irma, Aaron's legacy includes son Scott and daughter-in-law Kathy Hafetz of Linwood; Drew Hafetz of Hollywood, FL; Larry Hafetz and son-in-law Eric Gutierrez of Los Angeles, CA; and Glenn Hafetz, of Ventnor, who in these final years was his father's most constant companion; as well as his grandchil-dren Jordon, Brianna, Madison, and Brandon in whom he had such pride. He also main-tained special relationships with his nieces

and nephews and lifelong friendships with his extended family, including his sister- and brother-in-law. Jeannie and Burt Bennett of Pompano Beach, FL. Donations to American Friends of Magen David Adom www.afda.org, or to Birthright Israel www.birthrightisrael.com, are appreciated and will help carry on Aaron's commi tment to safeguarding Jewish culture. Toby Ponnock, of Maple Glen, a daughter of the late Evelyn and Samuel Ponnock, died on Sunday, October 16, of fallopian tube cancer, at age 79, just weeks before her 80th birthday. She is survived by her husband Sheldon Caplan, her daughter Barbara Zamsky, her son Robert (Sharon) Zamsky, her grandchildren Laura, Spencer, Dylan, Liam, Layne, and William, and her sister Ronnie (Buzz) Ponnock Marcus). Toby was vice president of sales for the Magic of Aloe, a skin care company, for twenty years, and was renowned for her skill with make-up and for her success in sales, through education about skin care and cosmetic application. She loved to ski, sail, and socialize. In addition, she was president of the Huntingdon Valley Ski Club for many years, enjoying teaching her children and her grandchildren to ski. Toby Ponnock found much love and happiness on her last ski trip with her children and grandchildren in February 2016, while fighting cancer. She loved to take her grandchildren on ski trips, and even cancer did not hold her back. Her friends took her on her last skiing trip in March 2016. Her husband talked of her zest for life and how much she was loved by family and friends alike. For over twenty years, Toby in-spired a group of women by leading yoga classes, imparting her positive attitude and words of wisdom. Toby always owned a dog, and her life-long love of animals motivated her to found "Ma and Paw's Pet Sitting Service" with her husband Shelly. Toby, who grew up in Merion, was a graduate of Lower Merion High School and Harcum College where she majored in art. She was known for knitting exquisite sweaters and afghans, and she was also a talented sculptor and painter Shelley and Toby had 49 years together. She played a significant role in the lives of all of her grandchildren, taking an interest in everything that interested them. She loved to attend their concerts, plays, games, and cel-ebrations. She celebrated 5 of her grandchil-dren's B'nai Mitzvot, most recently attending her grandson Will's Bar Mitzvah. Donations in her memory may be made to...The American Cancer Society. The funeral was at Levine's Memorial Chapel in Trevose, Pa, on October 19

house fire on Wednesday, October 5, 2016, at the age of 55. Loving husband of the late Tania Levine for 30 years; caring father of Ju-lian and Monica Levine; beloved son of Patty and Stanley Levine, brother of Susie Gross (Donald), Hank Levine (Jill), and Betsy Levne-Brown (Marc). David grew up on Marbury Road in Churchill where he enjoyed plaving street hockey and every imaginable sport with his siblings and neighbors. A music lover. David played the guitar, and had recently taken it up again. David showed an early interest in nature and animals, especially reptiles. Spending his summers at Kamp Kawanee in Pennsylvania and Camp Walden in Canada with his siblings, he was known as a fun-loving, prankster. He graduated from Churchill High School in 1979, and then attended the University of Pennsylvania, graduating in 1983 from the Wharton School of Business. Subsequently, David lived in Philadelphia, where he met the love of his life, Tania. After college, David worked as an options trader and market maker at the Phildelphia Stock Exchange, eventually starting and serving as President of his own firm, DL Securities, Ltd. Always a risk taker with a sharp and analytic mind, David successfully traded options for twenty-nine years. In 2013, David reinvented himself as owner and operator of ComForCare Senior Services Care with his wife, Tania. David led the company's marketing, sales, and business strategy, and was named one of the Huffington Post's "50 Post-50 Boomers," individuals who reinven-ted themselves after the age of 50. David was a devoted husband and father who loved to spend time traveling with his family. Together. David and Tania shared an appreciation for fine and exotic foods, wines, and cooking. Always an interested conversationalist. David was the rare kind of person who consistently asked others about themselves, and intently listened to the answers. He enjoyed playing golf, and would never say no to a poker game with friends. He approached poker like everything else he did, with an analytic and studious mind. Always a lover of clever puns, David was quick witted and funny, and could be counted on for a play on words. All who knew and loved David are overcome with grief by the devastating and tragic loss. ness. David grew up in the Strawberry Mansion neighborhood of Philadelphia and lived in Mt. Airy, Wyndmoor and Wyncote before moving with wife Lillian to Fort Lauderdale in 2001. Dave lived a long, happy and blessed life. He and his life partner Lil, were married lige full of 71 until bedraft in Idea iovfully for 71 years, until her death in July. 2014. Dave, together with Lil, loved playing cards with friends and, in middle age, took up golf and experienced many hours of pleasure on the golf course. He enjoyed going to work every day, six or even seven days per week. For fifty years, Dave Weisfeld owned and operated the D & W Famous Store in Camden, New Jersey. The venerable army and navy store served as a valued resource for Cam-den's working men and a well regarded and welcoming community hub. Throughout his retirement, Dave remained active and fully engaged in the pleasures and meaningful en-deavors of life. At age 94, Dave walked into a showroom and drove away in a new Nissan sedan. Just days before his passing, he enioved his almost daily ritual of coffee and fellowship with his Dunkin Donuts buddies, all almost half his age. Dave was well known for his wonderful sense of humor – quips and observations about life and the world – that provided a grounding perspective on the ups and downs of the human experience and a delight to all who knew him. He derived much joy and pride from his children and grand-(Robert Levy, Ph.D.) of Cooper City, FL, and Worker (Virginia Brabender, Ph.D.) of Swarthmore, PA, his daughter Judy Levy (Robert Levy, Ph.D.) of Cooper City, FL, and Worker (Virginia Brabender) grandchildren Seth (Kelly), Rachel, Jacob (Natasha Go) and Gabi. It has been said that death ends a life, but the person lives on in the hearts and minds of his/her loved ones. This truth is a sense of comfort for the family and friends of David Weisfeld.
