EISENBERG

Reta Eisenberg, 89, died at her home in Narberth, PA, after a battle with ovarian cancer on October 6, 2018. Mrs. Eisenberg, a native of Philadelphia was the daughter of the late Samuel and Mary Silvers. She grew up in West Philadelphia with her brothers Edward (Niki) and Donald (Brigitta) Silvers. She attended and graduated from West Philadelphia High School and then Temple University. She married Martin Eisenberg and they lived in Mt. Airy, Havertown and Bala-Cynwyd where they raised their four boys. She went on to receive her Masters in Education from Villanova University and worked as a guidance counselor at Northeast, Roxborough, and Germantown High Schools. Following the 1979 stroke and 1987 death of her husband, she devoted her energies in part to founding the Aphasia Center at Moss Rehabilitation Hospital where the Reta Eisenberg Activity Center and Reta's Games Group has been supported and endowed by her sons. Mrs. Eisenberg was not only one of the founders of the Moss Rehab Aphasia Center but also on its Advisory Board. She volunteered at the Barnes Foundation, The Physick House, and was a docent at the PA Academy of Fine Arts (PAFA). In 1996 she met and formed a life long relationship with Howard Isaacson, M.D. of Wynnewood. They were avid tennis and bridge players and travelled the world together. She was a great cook and dedicated her life to her family and friends. She was particularly proud of the trips she took with her grandchildren, each one on their own, but was ultimately disappointed that she was unable (due to her failing health) to take Micah, her youngest grandson, on a tour of Washington, D.C. which she had done with all the others. She is survived by her four sons; Stewart Eisenberg of Philadelphia and his wife Sally, Richard Eisenberg of Philadelphia, Fredric Eisenberg and his wife Leslie Goehl of Narberth, and Matthew Eisenberg and his wife Hillary Homzie of Napa, California. She was the loving grandmother of Michael (Katie), Rachael, Rebecca, Sarah, Max, Ben, Stella, Jonah, Ari, and Micah, and her great grandchild, Andrew. Contributions in her memory can be made to Moss Rehab Aphasia Center, 60 Township Line Rd., Elkins Park, PA 19027.

MANN

Dr. Harris Mann, passed away on October 18, 2018, the loving husband of Maxine Mann and devoted father to daughters, Sydney and Rebecca. Harris was self-made, hard working, and had an enormous amount of grit. He was gracious and welcoming, with a sparkle in his eyes at the meeting of any new, old, or soon-to-be friends. He had a deep love of all animals. Harris was everyone's perpetual short order cook and helper in every way - whether it be homework, advice, or a medical diagnosis - Harris was a jack of all trades. He was strong minded, brilliant, and almost always right in his convictions. Harris was unique and interesting, lighting up all of our lives, like he lit up the dance floor. There were many lessons to be learned from Harris and here are a few... - There is nothing that can't be solved by offering a corned beef special sandwich from Famous Deli and a hug. - Holiday dinners are far better when you invite all friends and family to join you. - Accept and care about everyone, no matter who they are, with boundless energy and zeal. - There is always time to make new friends and talk to old friends on the beach. - Always put out way more food than you need to ensure all are fed well including unexpected, but welcome guests. Harris leaves behind two loving brothers, Dr. Steven and Dr. Farrel Mann. He was a caring and involved Uncle to his nieces and nephews, Josh and Jodi Mann, Shari and Steve Herst, Stephanie and Chris Fikry, and Heather and Aeden Motnyk. He was a terrific son-in-law to David and Joyce Leff, as well as a devoted brother-in-law to Honey and Paula Mann. He loved and was a dedicated Dentist to his patients and an authentic friend to many. Relatives and friends were invited to the Funeral Services Sunday 9 AM precisely at Goldsteins' Rosenberg's Raphael-Sacks Suburban North, 310 2nd Street Pike, Southampton. Int. King David Memorial Park. Please make donations using the following link to the Philadelphia ALS Foundation, www.webpa.alsa.org/goto/HarrisMann

RONKIN Sheila Ronkin, 61, who worked to develop medicines that improve the lives of patients has died. Dr. Ronkin, of Philadelphia and Longport, died September 25th of advanced cancer. Dr. Ronkin graduated from Cherry Hill High School East (1974), earned her BA in psychology at Cornell University (Ithaca, NY in 1978) and MD at UMDNJ-NJMS (Newark, NJ in 1982). She was offered internship and residency training in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Temple University Hospital after the program director, in jest, consulted a current resident, showing him index cards with photos of 5 qualified candidates for the program, asking, "Which of these should we accept"? That resident, Dr. Andrew Gerson, selected her card, welcomed her to the program in July, 1982. They married (Oct, 1983) and became the parents of a daughter (Lyssa) in 1985 and a son (Alex) in 1991. Her husband, daughter and son were always the center of her life. Dr. Ronkin completed a fellowship in Maternal-Fetal Medicine at Jefferson University Hospital and directed and/or provided maternity care, prenatal diagnosis and ultrasound imaging for pregnant women for over a decade at area hospitals including Jefferson, Hahnemann, Chester-Crozer, The Chester County Hospital and Brandywine Hospital. While working and raising her family, Dr. Ronkin returned to school in 1996 and earned an MBA in strategic planning at Haub School of Business of St. Joseph's University. She happened to spot a Memorial Day Weekend employment ad in the Inquirer for a position at Wyeth (Radnor, PA) for a Medical Director in Women's Health and began a second career in Clinical Research and Development. Over two decades, she contributed in small or large ways, to development of a wide range of new medicines for new indications and new indications for approved medicines in multiple therapeutic areas. Pfizer acquired Wyeth in 2009 and she stayed with the company, advancing to the role of Vice President and Clinical Head for Rare Diseases. Upon Pfizer's reorganization in 2016, she continued her work to bring new medicines to physicians and their patients with BioMarin, a California-based biopharmaceutical innovator focusing on treatments for rare diseases driven by genetic causes. She was an avid reader, knitter, weaver, enjoyed travel, took long walks through the streets of Philadelphia and was engaged in current political discourse. Dr. Ronkin is survived by her husband Dr. Andrew Gerson, daughter Lyssa Gerson Guy (Nir Guy), son Alexander Gerson, and father Seymour Ronkin. JOSEPH LEVINE and SONS UNVEILINGS HARRISONUnveiling for Ethel Harrison is scheduled for Sunday October 14, 2018 at 1 pm at Mount Sharon cemetery. Please join us at graveside to celebrate Ethel and then later at the home of Alan and Wendy Goldfuss. Ethel is greatly missed by her 3 surviving children: Meryl (Michael Joblin), David (Mary Harrison), Wendy (Alan Goldfuss). her 9 grandchildren (Evan, Alana, Jamie, Andy, Molly, Brett, Julie, Jewels, and Nathaniel), and her 13, soon to be 14 great grandchildren. A wonderful homemaker, who made dinner every night along with constant birthday and holiday celebrations, she also became a reading therapist after her children were grown. In the late 1970s, Ethel became an advocate for healthy diet and lifestyle, in order to ward off heart bypass surgery faced by her husband, Russ. She was an active member of Women's American ORT and Hadassah, serving in many leadership roles and on their boards. She was extremely well read and often led book groups well into her 80's. She loved cultural and culinary events. Her heart and spirit were always open to family, friends and even strangers as she was in the words of her friends, "the hostess with the most-ess"! She demonstrated the highest moral values and stressed the importance of education, volunteerism, Jewish practice and tolerance. She was one of five fabulous female octogenarians featured in "Bubbies in the Burbs", a short documentary that was shown to Hadassah groups in PA and Florida. Born in Philadelphia in 1929, Ethel married Robert "Russ" Harrison in 1948. They lived in Overbrook Park until 1960 with their 4 children and then moved to Havertown. At age 64, Ethel became a widow and moved to Latches' Lane condominium, where she resided until her death October 12, 2017. She lived a long, happy, mostly healthy, fiercely independent, vibrant, and involved existence until the last year of her life when the obstacles of aging increased and diminished her quality of life. We are blessed that she went quickly without suffering and are grateful for the time we had with her and what we learned from her about cherishing life's blessings. Her memory is a blessing for all that knew her. Please join us on October 14 at Mount Sharon.
