BERKOWITZ

Susan Berkowitz (nee Cler), 72 of Holland, PA passed away with her family by her side, on September 11th, 2018 at 12:31 am, after a long and courageous battle against breast cancer. Beloved wife of 54 years to Bruce Berkowitz. Devoted mother to Kimberly Hulbert (Jonathan), of Mason, Ohio, and Debra Margolis (David) of Lawrenceville, New Jersey. Loving grandmother of Riley Hulbert, Katie Hulbert, Emma Hulbert, Addy Hulbert, Sophia Margolis and Isabella Margolis. Dear sister-in-law to Karol and Gary Seidenberg, Susan and Harvey Berkowitz, Robert Berkowitz and Harriet and Lawrence Ginsburg. Cherished Aunt to 7 loved nieces and nephews, and dear friend to countless other incredible people. Susan left her mark on this world by living each day to its fullest and fighting for every day no matter the challenge. If you were blessed to know her, you were amazed by her loving and giving spirit and fierce loyalty. She adored her family as they were the center of her universe, and her closest friends she considered to be her family as well. Her loss will leave a void in the hearts of all who were privileged enough to know and love her. Susan was a 1964 graduate of Northeast High School in Philadelphia. She spent the last 25 years of her life working in commercial banking. Most recently she participated in a clinical trial as patient zero at the Fox Chase Cancer Center, investigating the use of immune therapies in a search for a cure for Metastatic Breast Cancer. Her feeling was if it didn't save her life, it was a small price to pay if in the end it saved the life of another. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Fox Chase Cancer Center, Office of Institutional Advancement, 333 Cottman Ave., Phila., Pa., 19111, in support of the research being done by Elias Obeid, MD, and his search for a cure. Judaism isn't just what we believe, or the prayers we recite or the laws we observe. It's also about the way we live. How we interact with others. The values we practice. The customs and traditions we embrace and pass down, from one generation to the next.

WENZER

Samuel Wenzel, age 95 of Wilmington, DE and Delray Beach, FL, died peacefully on Saturday, August 4, 2018 surrounded by his family. Sam was born December 24, 1922 in New Brunswick, NJ and raised in Highland Park, NJ. He was a WWII veteran, serving in the 3rd Army in the European Theatre. He graduated from Highland Park High School and Temple University. Sam was a lifelong employee for the railroad, starting with Pennsylvania Railroad, then Penn Central and retiring from Conrail. Sam was a volunteer for Jewish Family Services and other local organizations in Wilmington, DE. He traveled the world with his wife, later with his grandson. He also enjoyed the stock market, history, gardening, collecting railroad memorabilia, talking with and visiting friends and above all else, his family. Always the athlete, Sam loved golf (playing into his 90s), tennis, basketball and baseball. He was thrilled to participate in the Phillies Dream Week during Spring Training when he was 72 years old. Sam was preceded in death by his wife, the love of his life, Helen. He is survived by his two children, Kenneth Wenzel of Takoma Park, MD and Carrie Wenzel Littman of Wilmington, DE; two grandchildren Evan Littman and Jada Littman Eldrich (Samuel) who affectionately called him Sampa; and the rest of his adoring friends and family. Sam's family will be holding a private event to celebrate his life. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to Honor Flight Network www.honorflight.org/donate-now, JCC of Wilmington, DE www.siegeljcc.org/5starratingpage/support-the-j or Congregation Beth Emeth www.bethemethde.org/payment.php

ZEITLYN

Jay Robert Zeitlyn, b. 8/27/42 d. 8/24/2018. We miss our beloved papa. As one friend stated in one of the countless letters that poured in the week before Jay's death, "When you look up the word mensch in the dictionary of life, there is Jay's photo. How one man could touch so many lives in such an uplifting way with his amazing spirit is a wonder." Jay is survived by his sister Bonnie Durst, children Dylan Zeitlyn, Emily Zeitlyn, and Mirah Zeitlyn, former spouse Lala Zeitlyn, grandchildren Solomon Zeitlyn, Sylvan Zeitlyn, and Simón Morillo. He was expecting a fourth grandchild and his first great-grandchild this fall. The family is planning a memorial service for spring of 2019 to celebrate Jay.
