Building Better Lives

Philadelphia's Jewish community has sustained and passed on our most treasured customs, traditions and legacies from generation to generation.

Ours is a sacred profession, one that is bound by a sacred trust with our community. Through a long-held commitment to our neighbors, our faith and our history, Joseph Levine & Sons continues to be steadfast in the values we hold most sacred: service, tradition and dignity.

Message from the Publisher

The 135-year-old Jewish Exponent (JE) changed ownership in March of 2022 to Mid-Atlantic Media (MAM). While there have been some adjustments, we're doing our best to provide compelling, award-winning content to the Greater Philadelphia Jewish community. We're excited to add JE to our MAM group of Jewish publications that now includes Baltimore Jewish Times and Washington Jewish Week. Together, the three publications can take advantage of terrific resources to make them stronger and better.

Over the last six months, you may have noticed our focus on digital content delivery and a print product with more features and personality profiles. The feedback has been positive with increased audiences. JE delivers its award-winning content in print, on its website and digital magazine, by email newsletter, and on multiple social media platforms. If you're reading this message, and you're not currently engaged with our JE content, we encourage you to give it a try. JE has many options to engage with its award-winning local Jewish content. If you have story ideas, people in the Jewish community you feel should be featured, life cycle announcements and even letters to the editor, please submit to editor@jewishexponent.com. It may get published!

As the new publisher of JE, this is MAM's first opportunity to produce JE's Guide to Jewish Life. This annual directory remains the best resource handbook for all things Jewish in Greater Philadelphia. Keep the print edition in that special place at home, but also know that it can be accessed digitally on our website using our digital magazine navigation button.

Enjoy JE, the Guide, and we wish everyone a healthy and 2022-'23!

Sincerely,

Craig Burke

HOW SPEAKING HEBREW MAKES YOUR CHILD BETTER AT CODING

From their first day of school, our students learn to think in two languages. Because Hebrew syntax is dramatically unlike English, kids actually see language differently. They search for patterns, learn to read in a different direction and understand new symbols.

This acumen – constantly shifting thought between two very diverse languages – has astounding benefits. Children gain a distinct advantage writing code in our engineering labs. They discover breakthrough ways to convey ideas and to unlock other abstract subjects, like algebra, art and music. They view the world with extraordinary curiosity, insight and compassion.

POWERED BY PERELMAN

Our peerless curriculum fuses Jewish and general studies in a way that elevates higher learning into highest learning. Students apply over 5,700 years of proven wisdom to subjects like architecture, financial literacy, anthropology and music theory.

The result? An experience that you cannot find at any other school, anywhere.

■ RELIGIOUS RESOURCES

The Jewish community of Greater Philadelphia benefits from a wide diversity of synagogues available. Nevertheless, all synagogues share a common mission and fulfill a common function: to preserve Jewish religious and communal traditions, not merely as a valuable heritage, but as a vital way of life. The function is to provide a setting in which observance, education and commitment can be carried out with other members of the community.

Classes located in Greater Philadelphia area, NJ and DE
215-620-0437
Goodblattacademy@gmail.com
Goodblattacademy.org

Offers an introduction to Judaism course designed for those who are curious about Judaism and want to know more. The academy serves as the training institution, under the auspices of the Rabbinical Assembly of Philadelphia, for those considering conversion to Judaism or for non-Jews sharing their lives with Jews. Those who intend to convert are mentored from the outset by local Conservative Rabbis. Classes are offered weekly over a period of 18 weeks at various satellite locations throughout the Greater Philadelphia region. Those who enroll will gain an understanding of Jewish history, culture, holidays, life cycle and practice. In addition, five holiday-themed gatherings will allow participants from all locations to meet and celebrate together.

Jewish Genetic Diseases

Jewish genetic diseases are a group of diseases for which screening is recommended in the Ashkenazi population. One in two Jews is at risk of being a carrier for 101 preventable Jewish genetic diseases. Tay-Sachs is an inherited genetic disorder — invariably fatal — that mainly affects Jewish infants. It is inherited from two healthy parents who both carry the gene, and there is a one-in-four chance that a baby will develop the disease if both parents are carriers. A simple blood test can determine whether an individual carries the Tay-Sachs gene. All Jewish people considering having children should arrange for Tay-Sachs testing. Late onset Tay-Sachs disease is a degenerative genetic disorder that causes debilitating physical and/or mental symptoms.

Services and Programs

The range of services offered by the Jewish community for its members and for the general public is varied and wide-ranging, with the community priding itself on offering high-quality services. Though it is not possible to provide for all needs in all parts of the Greater Philadelphia area, the organized Jewish community hopes that people will take advantage of available programs and services to which they are entitled. Almost all Jewish communal agencies charge fees on a sliding-scale basis or make other provisions for assisting those with limited financial means. Residents of the five-county region are eligible to use these services, as are local college students, visitors and members of the armed services stationed nearby.

Provides the following services to the Greater Philadelphia community:

Family Matters' Family Strengthening Program

Provides free, intensive in-home case management services to at-risk children and their families in the Philadelphia area including Delaware, Montgomery, Bucks, Philadelphia and Chester counties and Southern New Jersey. The goal of the program is to strengthen and empower the family while linking them with needed services and resources. Services include but are not limited to: supportive counseling; family safety planning; parenting support; support for families raising a child with special needs; support for grandparents or other relatives raising their grandchild/relative; information and referral; advocacy in schools or court; support with legal and custody issues; and homelessness prevention. JAFCO's social worker is available 24 hours per day, seven days a week to assist families in any emergencies.

Supervised Visitation Program

Provides scheduled, monitored visits between a child and a non-custodial parent or family member, supervised by a qualified professional. JAFCO provides a safe and structured environment for the visit while working with the family to ensure that all guidelines set by the court or referring agency are followed. JAFCO documents each visit and submits progress reports to the court with recommendations about the visits.

Licensed, experienced therapists counsel individuals, couples, families and groups on a variety of personal and family issues. Counselors help clients develop better ways of understanding and coping, and they facilitate prevention, support and educational group programming. Care managers engage in a variety of activities with clients to restore dignity, hope and meaning when it seems as if life's struggles are insurmountable. Care managers help clients establish short- and long-term goals, and link them with the appropriate community-based support services, such as connection to counseling services, financial assistance, credit counseling, advocacy, local resources and entitlement enrollment.

Major programs and services include: Individual and family services; Foster Care Services; Education and Outreach Services; Chaplaincy and Hospice Services; LGBTQA+ Services; Infant Adoption Services (Open Arms Adoption Network); Older Adult Services; Support for Holocaust Survivors; Support for the Orthodox Community; Hoarding Disorder Counseling; Bereavement Support Groups; Intimate Partner Violence Counseling Services; Family Abuse and Elder Abuse Counseling Support.

Assists volunteers ages 17 and up who want to work in Israel on non-combat IDF logistics and maintenance bases. VFI's mission is to give support and help strengthen America's bonds with Israel. Volunteers live and work alongside Israelis and other volunteers from around the world. Their jobs might include packing medical supplies and equipment, repairing machinery and outdated parts, building fortifications, assisting in the kitchen and maintaining the base. There are one-, two- and three-week programs year-round. Special programs for students include the summer International Youth Program (IYP) for young adults ages 17 to 25, and an add-on to Taglit-Birthright tours. There is also a new program that subsidizes groups of 10-12 students who volunteer on VFI programs through their campus Hillel. During the work week, participants get free housing, kosher meals, work clothes and cultural programs. There may also be tours.

Volunteers pay only for airfare, weekend expenses and an application fee. VFI is a nonprofit, nonsectarian, nonpolitical U.S. organization. Volunteers for Israel partners with SAR-EL, an Israeli organization that oversees volunteers' experiences on IDF bases.

Meet JUDY BALLINGER

SHE'S CALLED SIMPSON HOUSE HOME SINCE 2021

From suburban Washington, DC, to Wisconsin, to a mud hut in Ethiopia, Judy Ballinger has lived in a lot of places. She served in the Peace Corps and taught in Sudan. In Cape May, NJ, she established a kids' art camp, and she still has pieces in an art gallery in Reading, PA.

At Simpson House, she paints on silk and offers workshops in different media in the community's art room she helped set up. Judy continues doing what she loves and says she has learned to "find good in the path you are on, or find a new path."

Call us today 215-918-4752, or visit SimpsonHouse.org/TG-JB to see for yourself why Judy and so many other artistic people choose Simpson House for retirement living.

Better Than a 55-Plus Community

What makes a Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) so much better than a 55-plus community?

Moving takes a lot of work. At a CCRC like Masonic Village, additional care and services, if ever needed, are available right in your backyard amongst people you trust. You'll never have to move again, and your needs will be met long into the future. In addition to a beautiful home, a variety of amenities and friendly neighbors, you'll find peace of mind. Make your last move the best move, and choose a CCRC.

HAS YOUR LOVED ONE:

- Wandered?
- Not kept up personal hygiene and household chores?
- Avoided gatherings?
- Made questionable clothing choices?
- Forgotten how to call emergency services?

Making the decision to move a loved one into a memory care community may be the most difficult and emotional decision that you'll ever have to make. ■ EARLY CHILDHOOD

The Greater Philadelphia area offers a wide variety of formal and informal Jewish educational experiences for Jews of all ages and levels — from toddlers to senior citizens and from vocational learners to graduate students. There are Jewish nursery-school programs in many synagogues, Jewish day schools, Jewish high schools, supplementary schools, many synagogue-based Sunday and afternoon schools, a college of Jewish studies, a rabbinical college, etc.

Jewish Federation's Mandell Education Campus, a 28-acre site in Melrose Park, is home to the Forman Center of the Raymond and Ruth Perelman Jewish Day School, Gratz College, a branch of Federation Early Learning Services, as well as Jewish Family and Children's Service of Philadelphia. The 35-acre Jewish Federation Radnor Campus in Delaware County houses the Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy. It accommodates a wide variety of educational and programming activities. There are also opportunities for Jewish education at many of the area's colleges. Area synagogues and communal schools have educational programs for people of all ages.

Goodblattacademy.org

Offers an introduction to Judaism course designed for those who are curious about Judaism and want to know more. The academy serves as the training institution, under the auspices of the Rabbinical Assembly of Philadelphia, for those considering conversion to Judaism or for non-Jews sharing their lives with Jews. Those who intend to convert are mentored from the outset by local Conservative rabbis. Classes are offered weekly over a period of 23 weeks at various satellite locations throughout the Greater Philadelphia region. Those who enroll will gain an understanding of Jewish history, culture, holidays, life cycle and practice. In addition, five holiday-themed gatherings will allow participants from all locations to meet and celebrate together.

Notes from South Jersey Pinelands

Post Card

Instructions

From the moment you enter this national historic building you will discover the story of unique Jewish history that has endured for one hundred and thirty years. Set deep in the Pinelands in Northwest Cape May County, Woodbine was begun when a handful of Russian Jewish immigrants arrived in 1891 through the philanthropy of Baron Maurice de Hirsch. Visit the charming restored synagogue/museum and experience a new chapter of American Jewish history.

Friends,
You could write a book on the building alone. A picture is worth a thousand words.
Come see for yourself.....

Help them Celebrate Your Life

Providing funeral counseling and pre-need arrangements.

Pre-planning a funeral is a financial and emotional gift to your loved ones. Anyone who has ever lost a loved one knows how hard it is to make decisions at a time of grief. Let your family know your wishes, don't burden them with the costs of a funeral, and allow them to celebrate the life you lived. Our experienced funeral directors can guide you through the process, and assist you in making tough decisions.
